To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 99, entitled "An Act to amend Section seven of an act entitled 'An Act relating to motor-vehicles regulating their speed upon the public streets and highways of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania providing for their registration and the licensing of operators by the State Highway Department establishing the rights of motor-vehicles upon the public highways with relation to other vehicles regulating the service of process and of proceedings in actions for damages arising therefrom prescribing the penalties for violations of the provisions of this act and providing for the disposition of fines imposed thereunder' by striking out from section seven of said act the word hire wherever it may occur in said section."

JOHN K. TENER.

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 130.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, April 21, 1911.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 130, entitled "An Act to amend part of the first section of an act approved the eleventh day of July Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one entitled 'An Act to regulate and establish the fees to be charged by sheriffs in this Commonwealth and to provide for the taxation and collection of the same' by requiring sheriffs' fees for commitments and for discharging prisoners to be paid by the county."

JOHN K. TENER.

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 238.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, April 21, 1911.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 238, entitled "An Act amending the second third fourth and seventh sections of an act approved the twenty-seventh day of April Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and nine entitled 'An Act to create a Legislative Reference Bureau in the Pennsylvania State Library authorizing the appointment of a Reference Director and subordinate officers defining their duties and fixing their compensation' by providing for additional permanent and emergency employes in the bureau and fixing their salaries increasing the salaries of the Director and the assistant Director and increasing the powers and duties of the Director."

JOHN K. TENER.

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 213.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, April 21, 1911.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 213, entitled "An Act abolishing the offices of Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent of the Bureau of Railways in the Department of Internal Affairs creating the offices of Chief and Assistant Chief of the Bureau of Railways in said Department of Internal Affairs prescribing their duties and fixing their salaries and repealing all laws and parts of laws inconsistent herewith."

JOHN K. TENER.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 149.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, April 22, 1911.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 149, entitled "An Act repealing section seventy-four of an act entitled 'An Act relative to the organization of the courts of justice' approved April fourteenth Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred thirty-four."

Section 74, of the Act of 1834, which this bill proposes to repeal, provides for the disbarment of an attorney who shall retain money belonging to a client after a demand has been made by the client for the payment of the same. After careful inquiry I know of no good reason why this section should be repealed, and therefore withhold my approval from the bill.

JOHN K. TENER.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I move you that the question together with the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. KEYSER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF CONCURRENT RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE THE DIFFERENT SYSTEMS OF RECORDING DEEDS, MORTGAGES AND INSURANCE OF TITLES NOW IN EFFECT IN THE SEVERAL STATES, AND REPORT TO A SUBSEQUENT SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE SUCH ACT OR ACTS, AND CHANGES IN THE STATE CONSTITUTION THAT MAY BE NECESSARY TO IMPROVE THE PRESENT SYSTEM IN PENNSYLVANIA AND TO AUTHORIZE COUNTIES TO INSURE PURCHASES OF REAL ESTATE AGAINST DEFECTIVE TITLES AND PROVIDING AN APPROPRIATION FOR THE EXPENSES OF THE SAID COMMISSION.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, April 22, 1911.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, Concurrent Resolution from the Senate and House of Representatives, entitled a "Resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to investigate the different systems of recording deeds, mortgages and insurance of titles now in effect in the several States, and report to a subsequent session of the Legislature such act or acts, and changes in the State Constitution that may be necessary to improve the present system in Pennsylvania and to authorize counties to insure purchasers of real estate against defective titles and providing an appropriation for the expenses of the said commission."

This resolution provides that an item shall be inserted in the general appropriation bill, appropriating ten thousand dollars to defray the expenses of a commission of five citizens of Pennsylvania, whose duty it shall be to investigate and examine the various laws now in effect in the different States relating to the recording of deeds and mortgages, the transfer of lands, the insurance of titles and the practical operation of such laws, and report to a subsequent session of the Legislature such act or acts and changes in the Constitution which in the opinion of the commission will improve the present system governing the recording of deeds and mortgages in the several counties of the State.

The purpose of this resolution in my judgment could be accomplished by directing the Legislative Reference Bureau to make the examination required and to report to the next session of the General Assembly, giving the results of such examination, and recommending such changes in present legislation as may be deemed proper. I do not approve of the passage of concurrent resolutions which in effect authorize the expenditure of public moneys by directing that an item be inserted in the general appropriation bill, and respectfully recommend that the practice be discouraged.

For these reasons the resolution is not approved.

JOHN K. TENER.

On the question,

Shall the resolution pass, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr. KEYSER. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of this resolution be postponed for the present.

Mr. CATLIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 92.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 92, entitled "An Act making an appropriation to refund to Alice A. Trill money paid for notary public commission."

JOHN K. TENER.

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 91.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, April 20, 1911.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 91, entitled "An Act making an appropriation to refund to William G. Walter money paid for notary public commission."

JOHN K. TENER.

RESOLUTION OF AMERICAN PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY REQUESTING LEGISLATION ON CHESTNUT BLIGHT DISEASE.

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate resolution of American Philosophical Society, which was read as follows and referred to the Committee on Forestry.

American Philosophical Society Held at Philadelphia, for Promoting Useful Knowledge (Founded 1743).
104 South Fifth Street.

Adopted April 22, 1911.

RESOLUTION ON THE CHESTNUT BLIGHT DISEASE.

Whereas, There has appeared in the eastern United States a destructive fungus disease of the chestnut tree, known as the chestnut blight, which as a disease in epidemic form threatens to destroy the native chestnut throughout north America,

Be it Resolved, That the American Philosophical Society in general meeting assembled heartily supports appropriate legislation in Pennsylvania, in other States, or by the National government looking to the eradication of the disease by the establishment of a quarantine, or by other more drastic measures of destroying the diseased trees along the outposts of the infected areas, and be it,

Resolved, That the members of the national Congress and the members of the several State legislatures are requested to adopt such legislation, as above mentioned, and appropriate sufficiently large sums of money with the view of stamping out the disease before it reaches the main body of chestnut timber in the southern and southwestern deciduous forests of our country, and it is

Resolved, That the members of the American Philosophical Society will support the movement begun in Pennsylvania looking to the eradication of the disease from our too rapidly disappearing forest areas.

W. W. KEEN, President.

BILL ON SECOND READING.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 496 (House No. 312), on second reading, entitled:

An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith

Mr. TUSTIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I desire to say that we ask that this bill be read the second time to-night and that the Senators refrain from offering any amendments because we shall ask that the bill be fixed for special order on next Tuesday and the Senators can read the bill fully and hand in the amendments in the meantime and discuss them and get together without any contest or conflict, I think.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator what the plan is about reading the bill tonight, I do not understand.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Schuylkill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, what does the Senator from Monroe desire to know?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, will the Senator restate his proposition about reading the bill a second time.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, it is proposed that this bill be passed on second reading without the offering of any amendments and then after it is passed on second reading to fix next Tuesday for a special order for a final passage of the bill, and in the meantime Senator and the other Senators who desire to offer amendments will have the privilege of studying the bill and handing their amendments in next Tuesday.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of the whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 496 (House No. 312), as follows:

An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith

ARTICLE I
SCHOOL DISTRICTS

Section 101 Each city incorporated town borough or township in this Commonwealth now existing or hereafter created shall constitute a separate school district to be designated and known as the "School District of ...." and the several school districts thus established shall be and hereby are divided into four classes as follows

Section 102 Each school district having a population of five hundred thousand (500,000) or more shall be a school district of the first class

Section 103 Each school district having a population of thirty thousand (30,000) or more but of less than five hundred thousand (500,000) shall be a school district of the second class

Section 104 Each school district having a population of five thousand (5,000) or more but of less than thirty thousand (30,000) shall be a school district of the third class

Section 105 Each school district having a population of less than five thousand (5,000) shall be a school district of the fourth class.

Section 106 The last United States census as set forth in the official report thereof shall be the basis on which the population of the several school districts shall be computed and no change shall be made from one class of school districts to another except after the taking of a United States census showing the population of any school district to be such as to entitle it to be changed from one class of school districts to another

Section 107 After the taking of each United States census the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall canvass the same so far as it relates to the population of the several school districts in this Commonwealth and if it appears that the population of any school district in this Commonwealth by such census is such that it should be included in another class of school districts the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall issue a certificate to such district to that effect and such school district shall with the beginning of the first school year after such certificate is issued become a school district of the class to which it properly belongs

Section 108 From and after the beginning of the first school year as herein provided for the school districts herein established all independent school districts as they now exist shall be abolished and the lands comprising the same shall revert to the school districts hereby established in which they are located and all land heretofore taken from one school district and annexed to another whether by act of Assembly or order of court or otherwise be and hereby is made a part of the school district hereby established in which such land is located so that the boundary lines of the several school districts as established by this act shall be and remain conterminous with the boundary lines of the several cities incorporated towns boroughs and townships in this Comonwealth as they then exist or may hereafter be created changed or extended

Section 109 If any new school district is made by the creation of any city borough or township or if the boundary lines of any school district are changed by reason of the changing of the boundary lines of any city incorporated town borough or township then in such case such change so far as it relates to school districts or school affairs shall take effect at the beginning of the first school year after such new city borough or township has been created or such change in boundary lines permanently effected

Section 110 Where any independent school district is abolished and its land reverts to two or more school districts or where any land heretofore annexed to one school district is made a part of the district in which it is located or where a new district is made by the creation of a new city borough or township out of one or more school districts or where the boundary lines of any district are changed by the changing of the boundary lines of any city incorporated town borough or township then in any such case the school districts to which land has been annexed or from which land has been taken or which have been newly created shall make a just and proper adjustment and apportionment of all school property real and personal including funds as well as indebtedness if any to and among such school districts The indebtedness of any independent school district hereby abolished whose land is wholly within the boundaries of any school district hereby established shall be assumed and paid and all its personal property acquired by such school district

Section 111 In making such adjustment and apportionment of property and indebtedness the amount and assessed value of land acquired by or taken from such districts as compared with the amount and assessed value of the other land in the districts as well as the value of the school grounds together with the buildings thereon and the furniture and equipment therein and other school property in such districts shall be taken into consideration in making such adjustment of the amount if any that shall be paid by one district to another or in the apportionment of the indebtedness if any that shall be assumed and paid by any of said districts Such adjustment and apportionment of property and liability shall be made by the boards of school directors of the several districts concerned before or during the first school year after such boundaries have been changed

Section 112 In case the boards of school directors of said several school districts cannot make such amicable apportionment and adjustment of their property and indebtedness in compliance with this act beforeor during the first school year beginning after any such change in their boundary lines is made then in that case any one of such school districts may at any time within the succeeding school year present its proper petition to the court of common pleas in the county of which such school district is located whereupon the said court shall appoint three disinterested commissioners residents and taxpayers of said county not residing in either of the districts whose boundary lines are changed who after a hearing due notice of which shall be given to the several districts interested as the court may direct shall make a report to the court making an apportionment and adjustment according to the provisions of this act of all school property as well as indebtedness if any to and among the several school districts from which or to which land has been taken or added or newly created as the case may be said report to state the amount if any that shall be due and payable from one district to another as well as the amount of indebtedness if any that shall be assumed by any district

Section 113 The aforesaid commissioners shall give the several districts interested at least five days' notice of the filing of their report and unless exceptions are filed thereto by any district interested within thirty (30) days after the filing thereof the same shall be confirmed by the court absolutely and any sum awarded by said report to any school district shall be a legal and valid claim in its favor against the school district charged therewith and the amount of debt if any apportioned to any school district shall be a legal and valid claim against such district charged therewith and upon such report being confirmed such claim or indebtedness charged against any school district may be collected in the same manner as a judgment is collected against any school district Such commissioners shall be allowed three dollars ($3.00) per day for each day actually spent by them in the performance of their duties together with their actual necessary expenses All costs and proceedings shall be apportioned by the court to and among the several school districts as it shall deem proper

Section 114 In case exceptions are filed to the report of such commissioners the court shall dispose of the same taking testimony therein if it deems advisable and the decision of the court thereon shall be final and binding on the several districts without any right of appeal

Section 115 In cases in which such districts are situated in two or more counties the court of common pleas of the county in which the largest part of the land annexed to or taken from any district is situated shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the matter and in such case the court may appoint the commissioners hereinbefore provided for from any one or all such counties

Section 116 Whenever a new school district is created by the creation of a new city borough or township the clerk of the courts or other proper officer shall within ten days thereafter make a certified copy of the decree or order creating such new city borough or township and mail the same to the Superintendent of Public Instruction

Section 117. The several school districts in this Commonwealth established by this act shall be and hereby are vested as bodies corporate with all necessary powers to enable them to carry out the provisions of this act

Section 118 From and after the beginning of the first school year following the approval of this Act all the public school property in this Commonwealth real personal or mixed now held owned or possessed by any school district sub-school district or ward school district therein or that may be held owned or possessed by any municipality or the use of any school district or for school purposes is hereby transferred and assigned to and shall be owned by any vested in the proper school district established by this act within whose boundaries such property is situated except as herein provided subject to all the trusts conditions and liabilities legally applicable thereto And each school district hereby established shall succeed to and shall assume and pay all the rights liabilities and indebtedness of the school district or districts sub-school districts or ward school districts within its boundaries including any and all indebtedness that may have been created or incurred as school indebtedness by any municipality subject to the provision of this act for or on account of any such school district or for school purposes with the benefit of application of the amount of any and all sinking funds in connection with such indebtedness to such extent as such sinking funds shall exist at the time herein fixed as that of the assumption or payment as said indebtedness Provided That where any joint schools have heretofore been established or may hereafter be established by any two or more school districts the property of such joint schools shall be held owned or occupied by the school districts provided for by this Act in such proportion and in such manner as the school district establishing the same have agreed or may mutually agree upon

Section 119 Where any school property real or personal or mixed is subject to the assumption of payment of any indebtedness is by the provisions of this act transferred from any municipality holding the same for school purposes to any school district established by this act and where any indebtedness is herein provided to be assumed and paid by any school district and the municipality from which such school property is transferred or whose indebtedness is herein provided to be assumed and paid and the school district to which the same has been or is to be transferred cannot agree upon the amount of the indebtedness incurred as school indebtedness herein directed to be assumed and paid by such school district or upon the amount of any sinking fund applicable to such indebtedness then in any such case the said municipality or any such school district may at any time within one year after the approval of this Act present its petition to the court of common pleas of the county in which such municipality or school district is located which petition shall state the facts regarding such transfer of property indebtedness and sinking fund whereupon the said court after hearing and taking testimony as it may deem necessary shall determine and adjudicate the amount of indebtedness if any that shall be assumed and paid by such district and the amount of such sinking fund in existence applicable to its payment In every case in which it is being herein directed that any indebtedness shall be assumed and paid by any school district created hereunder it shall be lawful for such school district and the municipality or district whose indebtedness incurred for school purposes is herein and hereby directed to be assumed and paid to agree at any time hereafter that the amount of indebtedness as aforesaid directed to be assumed and paid by such school district may in whole or part be paid over by the school district to the municipality or other district whose indebtedness is thus agreed to be assumed and paid with allowance for the amount of the sinking fund in existence at the time of the assumption of such indebtedness applicable thereto In case of such agreement upon such payment of said net amount of indebtedness the obligation by the school district to assume and pay such indebtedness shall cease such payment operating as a discharge of all duty hereunder in connection therewith

Section 120 Any deed for school property properly executed and delivered in the name of any school district as established by this Act shall convey to the grantee the entire interest of the grantor in such property irrespective of the manner or name in which such property was conveyed to or acquired by or is held by the school district conveying the same

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. TUSTIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a motion at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. TUSTIN. Mr. President, I move that May 2nd, at 11.00 o'clock A. M., be fixed as a special order for the consideration of Senate Bill No. 496 (House No. 312), the bill which has just been read, with the understanding that at that time amendments may be offered by Senators desiring same, and that rules to the contrary be suspended. I do this because the Committee on Education of the Senate will have several meetings between this time and that and any Senator who has amendments to offer may present them to the Committee on Education and they can then be considered. If the amendments are not adopted by the Committee on Education, it then gives the Senators a chance to present those amendments on the floor of the Senate next Tuesday, and thus every Senator will be treated fairly and every amendment will have every chance of being fairly presented.

Mr. HERBST. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 496 (House No. 312), the bill just read, be recommitted to the Committee on Education.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 133, as follows:

An act regulating the issuance of licenses to marry prohibiting the issuance of such licenses to certain persons regulating the time during which licenses shall be valid and the time when returns shall be made of marriages solemnized to the clerk of the orphans' court prescribing the duties of the clerk of the orphans' court and providing penalties for the violations of the provisions of this act

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That no license to marry shall be issued except upon written and verified application Such application shall contain a statement of the full christian name and surname color occupation birthplace residence and ages of the parties whether the marriage contemplated is the first second or other marriage and that neither of the contracting parties is afflicted with a transmissible disease together with the full christian name and surname residence color occupation and birthplace of their parents including the maiden name of the mother together with such other facts as may be necessary to determine whether any legal impediment to the proposed marriage exists Such application shall be recorded by the clerk together with the license and certificate of marriage in a book provided for that purpose which book shall be a public record

Section 2 Applications for license to marry shall be uniform throughout the State and it is hereby made the duty of the State Department of Health to furnish a form therefor to the several clerks at once upon the approval of this act Provided That said State Department of Health may revise said forms so furnished from time to time as may be advisable

Section 3 No license to marry shall be issued where either of the contracting parties is an imbecile epileptic of unsound mind or under guardianship as a person of unsound mind nor to any male person who is or has been within five years an inmate of any county asylum or home for indigent persons unless it satisfactorily appears that the cause of such condition has been removed and that such male applicant is physically able to support a family or if at the time of making application either of the contracting parties is under the influence of an intoxicating liquor or narcotic drug and no license shall be valid for a longer period than sixty days from the date of issue

Section 4 In those cases when the right to a license is not made to appear the clerk shall refuse to issue the same At once upon such refusal he shall certify the proceeding to the proper court without formality or expense to the applicants who shall be notified by him of such action Such application shall thereupon be at the earliest practical time heard by the judge of said court without a jury in court or in chambers during the term or in vacation as the case may be and his finding that a license ought to issue or ought not to issue shall be final and the clerk shall act in accordance therewith the true intent of this section being to secure for the applicants a hearing by said judge without affirmative action by said applicants and to give notice to them of such hearing its time and place without delay or expense

Section 5 If persons resident of this State with intent to evade the provisions of section one and section three go into another State and there have their marriage solemnized with the intention of afterward returning and residing in this State and do so return and reside in this State such marriage shall be void and illegal under the laws of this State Provided This section shall not apply to persons who in good faith become or are citizens of any other State

Section 6 Whoever procures the issuance of a license to marry by any false statement representation or pretense shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars

Section 7 Whoever being duly authorized to solemnize marriage in this State knowingly joins in marriage persons who have not complied with the statute relative to the procurement of marriage license shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and who being duly authorized to solemnize marriages in this State shall fail to make returns of any marirage within three days after the same has been solemnized shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00)

Section 8 Every clerk of the orphans' court who shall issue any license contrary to the provisions of this act shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars All fines provided by this act shall be payable to the county in which the marriage license was issued or solemnized without a proper license and shall be recovered by an action of debt in the name of the said county as plaintiff in the same manner as other debts are recoverable by law with the usual costs in any court of record in any county of this Commonwealth in which the defendant or defendants shall be found

Section 9 All acts or parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed

I think three are sufficient and I want to put on record the reason I shall vote against the bill.

Mr. FOX. Mr. President, I have had some talks with the Auditor General about his force and he has assured me that the increase of his force is absolutely necessary; that it is inadequate as it now is, and with the increase of business altogether probable in the next few years I believe this number is proper.

ASKING THE COMMISSION OF FORESTRY FOR INFORMATION.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a resolution at this time.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be read by the Clerk.

The resolution was read as follows:

Whereas, Charges have been made in one or more newspapers of the State that the Forestry Commissioner has been conducting the department under his charge in the interest of his own family and to the prejudice of the public interests, and

Whereas, Rumors are current to the effect that irregularities have been allowed in the Department of Forestry; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Commissioner of Forstry is hereby required to furnish to the House of Representatives, within ten days, the following information, namely:

First—How many acres of land have been purchased by the State Forestry Commission on behalf of the Commonwealth.

Second—From whom the land was purchased together with the price per acre paid for each piece or parcel; also the location of said land.

Third—Whether or not the State Forestry Commission or the Commissioner of Forestry is operating any saw mill or saw mills, together with the number thereof and where located, for the purpose of manufacturing lumber from the State Forest Reserves and who is in charge of said mills; also the cost of such manufacture and the price received for the product.

Fourth—The names of all persons employed by the State Forestry Commissioner or the Forestry Commissioner together with the salary or wages paid to each person.

The SPEAKER. This resolution lies over under the rules.

MOTION TO PLACE BILL ON CALENDAR.

Mr. RUMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up the motion offered by me on April 10, 1911.

The SPEAKER. The motion will be read by the Clerk.

The motion was read as follows:

> That House Bill No. 555, entitled: "An Act requiring all property real personal and mixed to be taxable and assessed according to its fair cash value," be placed upon the calendar notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the Committee.

Mr. BENSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion.

Mr. RUMSEY. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this is a question on a motion to place on the calendar House Bill No. 555, notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the Ways and Means Committee. With all due respect for the gentlemen of the Ways and Means Committee, I beg leave to differ with them for the reason that this is a bill in the interests of all of the people of the State of Pennsylvania. The bill provides that all property, personal, real, mixed and corporate, be assessed—all property now the subject of taxation be assessed for all purposes.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House, we have now under our system two systems of taxation. One system is that two-thirds of the property of the State of Pennsylvania is non-assessable except on their own assessment, while the other, about one-third, is assessed under the old way by the assessors placing a value thereon. One class of this property amounts in round numbers to about eight billions of dollars, which is paying at the present time about three and a half mills on the dollar, while the other class, or about one-third, amounts to about four billions of dollars, and is paying on the average throughout the State about two and a half per cent. In my county it is three and a half per cent. I am indebted to the State Grange for the following compilation:

The appraised valuation of real estate as shown by this compilation is $4,209,075,060, upon which is collected taxes aggregating $77,568,406, an average levy of eighteen mills. This was in the year 1908. The appraised valuation of personal and corporation property is $7,109,006,575, upon which is collected taxes for State purposes to the amount of $22,184,120, or an average of three and a quarter mills on the dollar.

This bill here proposes merely that all property, both corporate, real and personal, be assessed in proportion to its fair cash value. I want to read you just one figure showing how this is done. According to the report of the Secretary of Internal Affairs for the year 1909, on page 74, a certain railroad—and I am willing to call it by name—the Coudersport and Port Allegheny Railroad Company, has assets amounting to $630,682.10; the passenger earnings are $39,911; the freight earnings are $75,821; other earnings from operations, $2,760, or a total of $48,492. The Auditor General's report is as to the amount of taxes paid; tax on capital stock, $1,500; tax on bonds, $465; tax on total receipts, $67.20, or a total tax of $2,032.27; which amounts to a tax of three and three-tenths mills on the dollar paid into the State on earnings of over $188,000, while the farmers in my county are paying thirty-five mills, or three and one-half per cent.

The trouble is that you have two kinds of taxation, as I said. One is assessed and the other non-assessible; one is a property assessment, while the other is an equity assessment. I just used a railroad as a figure, but the other corporations are the same. Under your law now they pay five mills on the actual value of their stock. They may be bonded for all they are worth, but only pay five mills, but when you come to the farmer, he may owe three times what his property is worth. His equity is his title. He may owe three-fourths of it on a mortgage, and the law says that he shall pay three mills. Gentlemen, this bill is merely to put it on an equality, an equalized taxation, and calls for equal rights for the people, and I ask you to place this bill on the calendar in the name of common justice, and in justice to the common people, and let it be considered by this House.

Mr. DEARDEN. Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House, I am very sorry because of the confusion existing during the remarks of the gentleman, our common friend, Mr. Rumsey, upon this very important subject. I personally was put to a great deal of effort in order to hear what he had to say. I have this to say, that this subject relates to a question of vital interest, not only in this Commonwealth, but of tremendous interest throughout the whole country. It relates to the simple proposition that all kinds of property, real, personal and mixed, shall be assessed for all purposes, according to the fair cash value. That is the proposition. I am sorry that this House did not do itself the kindness to hear the gentleman's elucidation of the subject. I gathered that he differentiated between assessible and non-assessible property. If the gentleman will allow himself to be interrogated, I would like to ask him what he means by that.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Potter, Mr. Rumsey, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUMSEY. Yes, sir.

Mr. DEARDEN. Will the gentleman kindly explain what he means?

Mr. RUMSEY. In reply to the gentleman from Philadelphia, I would say I mean a better assessment of the corporate and personal property of the Commonwealth. On the real estate the assessor comes around and places a value thereon. While these other people assess themselves, only paying three and a quarter mills on their valuation as sworn to by them, while the other people are paying two per cent.

Mr. DEARDEN. What did the gentleman mean by his reference to property the equitable valuation?

Mr. RUMSEY. What I meant was this: That under the law the assessing of public utilities, for instance, the law provides that it shall be five mills on the actual valuation of the capital stock. It may be bonded for nine-tenths of what it is worth. The law further provides for a four mills tax on the bond. The company may not own the bond, they may be owned in New York. Then there is a five mills tax on the gross receipts, and you cannot find a company that has paid one mill, and if you can I will buy you a suit of clothes.

Mr. DEARDEN. If I understand this we are asked to place this bill on the calendar. It is a move to expedite business to which I have not resorted except on one occasion. I think it is the last resort open to us, but there are reasons sometimes why a respectful request of this kind is entitled to our most serious consideration, and I think this is one of the times. The question is too large, too important in economic matters, and in justice to the citizens of the Commonwealth we ought not to dismiss it offhand without ample consideration. The subject ought to be considered by the House as a party and not allowed to go by default because of the failure to favorably report it. I think the bill has exceptional merits because of some of the exceptional questions presented to us by it, and for those reasons it would be courtesy to allow this matter to come up for consideration, and I hope the House will accede to the request and allow the bill to be placed upon the calendar.

Mr. SCHOFIELD. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Potter, Mr. Rumsey, particularly addressed his remarks to me, so I want to put the gentleman right on this subject. It is true that the bill bears my name as reporting it out of the Ways and Means Committee with a negative recommendation, but as the gentleman knows, and as you all know, that has no importance whatever, as I was simply the instrument that reported it out after a full and complete hearing. I want to call your attention to a statement which has been placed on the desk of every member to-day by the gentleman from Potter, along with his reasons for supporting his motion. I want to say at the outset that I am absolutely in accord with the gentleman from Potter on the question of the necessity and wisdom of this legislation, if in proper form. No doubt a great many corporations escaped taxation, or the just burden of it, but I want to call your attention to the wording of this act. You will note in line 5 that it says, "That from and after the passage of this act all kinds of property, real, personal, mixed or corporate, now the subject of taxation." "Now the subject of taxation." Under the terms of this act you could not put a bit of taxation on property which was not now the subject of taxation. In section two it says "all laws inconsistent herewith . . . are hereby repealed." Now they are absolutely inconsistent. I could dwell at length on this subject, but I will not take up the time of the House except to call attention to one point in the written statement of the gentleman from Potter. He talks about the Potter Gas Company, and although he comes from that county, I think I can enlighten him somewhat with reference to it. You must all remember that the gas and oil industries of this State were at one time of almost phenominal importance to the State, and more valuable than all other industries, still at the present time they are at a very low ebb. I know of my own knowledge that the Potter Gas Company is almost unable to pay the State tax and that the capitalization bonds are not marketable, and do not pay any dividend, and that the company is now in the last throes of corporate existence. This subject is of great importance, and a commission has been appointed to look into this matter, and they have asked for an extension of time, and the gentleman wants to cut out all that labor and give us an equitable system of taxation. When this bill came before the Ways and Means Committee we carefully studied this matter and came to the conclusion that it was unwise to bring it before the House at this time.

Mr. AILMAN. Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House, as has been well said, this subject is of such vast importance that it should receive the careful consideration of this House. If we vote adversely and the bill is not placed on the calendar this phase of the subject will receive no more consideration at this session. The gentleman who has just resumed his seat claimed it would not be expedient or possible to frame an equitable tax measure in a few lines. It seems to me that he is in error there. It is possible to state the exact principle of how taxes should be levied in a very few words. My platform on this question is that, inasmuch as one man's dollar gets and requires as much of the protection and care of Government as does the dollar of the other, that one man's dollar should be taxed the same as the other, no matter where invested. This principle is not in any State in the Union so widely deviated from as in Pennsylvania. I know our tax system is sometimes lauded in the press and sometimes on the platform, but again I assert this principle of one man's dollar bearing the same burden as another. The reason is, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House, that a good many years ago, more than half a century, a principle was adopted in this State of taxing for State purposes, corporate and personal property, and for local purposes real estate; and it was pretty fair then, the one paying about the same proportion of taxes as the other; but in the meantime the corporate property has grown at such a wonderful rate, and the real estate has not, that they have become entirely overbalanced. In round numbers the corporate property is worth about $8,000,000,000, while the real estate is worth about four billion. That is, the corporate property is worth about twice as much as the real estate, while the taxes paid on the real estate are nearly four times the taxes paid by the corporate property; in other words, the real estate pays not far from eighty millions dollars, while the corporate property, according to the report of the State Treasurer himself, pays about twenty millions of dollars a year. I am sorry this committee did not see fit to take the one step necessary to advocate an equality of taxes, the tax on one dollar the same as the other. As I have already said, corporate property has increased in value at a wonderful rate, while real estate has not. On the contrary, every man knows, or real estate owner, that real estate has been decreasing, and with all your boast of prosperity in the last decade and with all your talk of the high cost of living in the last few years, farming properties have not advanced any appreciable extent, and with butter at twenty cents a pound and eggs at sixteen cents a dozen nobody at all will be attracted to the agricultural district. While it is true that real estate has advanced very little, and also true that nineteen agricultural districts in the State have lost in population during the last decade, it is equally true that west of the Allegheny Mountains real estate has more than doubled in value in the last twenty or thirty years, and property that you could get in Illinois twenty-five years ago for $60 an acre cannot be had now at $120 an acre. Go to the Pacific Coast and there is an increase of almost one hundred per cent. The main cause of this difference is the difference in taxation. You are told that we cannot raise so much here as in the West, that we cannot raise as many bushels per acre, and so on. This is not true. If the statistics issued here in the Department are worth anything, we are told by them that we can raise more bushels and pounds to the acre in Pennsylvania than in any State west of the Appalachian Mountains. According to that report we can raise more bushels of wheat and corn to the acre than in any State west of the Appalachian Mountains.

The main difference as I stated is the difference in taxation. I wrote to some acquaintance that I have in the West, in the State of Colorado. This applies to a particular farm, not a selected farm, but a farm belonging to someone that I happen to know there and I am informed that the rate is five mills. On the farm land in the vicinity where my friend from Colorado lives it is thirty-five and forty mills. In Illinois it is eight mills—not per cent., but mills. In Missouri it is three mills; Ohio ten mills; Kansas five mills; Michigan seven mills; New York, right to the north of us, five mills; my friend from Potter will tell you that right over the line in the State of New York that on the same farm land the taxes are just about one-half as much. In Massachusetts the tax is five mills; in Delaware seven. In every one of these States, with one exception, corporate property is taxed for local purposes. In that State the assessment is levied by a commission, and not by the corporation itself, as it is in Pennsylvania. In our township the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad runs through there and has at least $240,000 worth of property in my township, and does not pay one cent for roads nor one cent for school. We will probably get some little appropriation for school and possibly a little for public roads if my friend, Mr. Heck's, bill goes through the other house as easy as it did through this. This question deserves your most careful consideration and should be acted upon in the same way.

Mr. BENSON. Mr. Speaker, I only want to say that this is an important matter and I think I ought to say a few words, because it is an important question to the people of this State and ought to receive the attention of this House. I am in favor of it. And I hold that an assessment of taxes just to all corporations and individuals should be adopted in this State of Pennsylvania. I want to call your attention to the feeling of the citizens and farmers throughout this State, and will read an article in one of the newspapers:

> "Representative Benson and Hilton have been asked by the prominent citizens of this township and vicinity to do their best in the Legislature for the equalization of taxes and remedy the complaints alleged by them in a bill. The situation appears to be a difficult one. Years ago with a valuation of $780,000.00 and a mileage of 33 the township was thriving. The valuation now is under $300,000 and the taxpayers have to pay 50 mills. They allege that if equalization were made, and by this they appear to be aiming at the corporation taxes which are considerable less in mileage, relief could be afforded them from the burden. The citizens here are for good roads and good schools but little can be done in these directions owing as they claim to the present situation."

Gentlemen, I am one of those that believe that the property of corporations should be assessed for local taxation, and I want to see an equal taxation, whether the man be rich or poor.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I know that the question of the equalization of taxation is one of very great importance to the people of the rural districts of this Commonwealth, and I believe this bill should be and is of sufficient importance to our constituents as to warrant it being placed on the calendar at this time.

The question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

Mr. JOHN R. JONES. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. John R. Jones.

Mr. JOHN R. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I desire unanimous consent to offer a resolution.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be read by the Clerk for the information of the House.

The resolution was twice read by the Clerk as follows:

THAT COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS BE DISCHARGED FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF A BILL.

That the Committee on Elections be discharged from further consideration of the bill entitled "An Act to enable the electors to express at the November election of the year 1911 their preference for or against the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the electors," said bill having been read in place January 25th, 1911, referred to the Committee on Elections January 25th, 1911.

Mr. GRAYBILL. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Graybill.

Mr. GRAYBILL. Mr. Speaker, as chairman of that committee I would state to the House that the Committee on Elections is ready to report on that bill.

Mr. JOHN R. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I understood that to be the fact before I made this motion. But when the time for this committee's report came the committee failed to report. I therefore would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster permit himself to be interrogated by the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. John R. Jones?

Mr. GRAYBILL. Yes, sir.

Mr. JOHN R. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if that is a fact that the Committee on Elections is ready to report on that bill, and I would like to know why it was not reported to the House this evening in regular order.

Mr. GRAYBILL. Mr. Speaker, I presume that a member of this House who is chairman of a committee which has charge of a bill can report from that committee when most convenient and use his own pleasure in doing so. That is why this bill has not been reported out. We will do so at the proper time.

Mr. JOHN R. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster.

Mr. GRAYBILL. Certainly.

Mr. JOHN R. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if he will give me any information in regard to the time when that bill is to be reported to this House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to ask the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Graybill, whether the Committee on Elections has actually acted on this bill.

Mr. GRAYBILL. It has.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman who is present and is in charge of that bill is ready the Chair will receive the report from that committee now. If not, the gentleman from Schuylkill is in order.

Mr. GRAYBILL. Mr. Speaker, as chairman of that committee, I beg leave to offer the following report.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the report.

The Clerk read the report as follows:

The Chairman from the Committee on Elections, reports from the Committee on Elections on this bill, with negative recommendation.

Mr. JOHN R. JONES. Mr. Speaker, as this has been an irregular sort of a proceeding, I desire at this time to ask for the unanimous consent of this House to make a motion.

MOTION TO PLACE BILL ON CALENDAR.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection and the motion will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk read the motion as follows:

That House Bill No. 729, entitled "An Act to enable the electors to express at the November election of the year Anno Domini 1911 their preference for or against the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the electors" be placed upon the calendar notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the Committee.

The motion was twice read and laid over under the rules.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walnut.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, as a matter of information, I would like to inquire if the bill on which I made a motion last Monday night to discharge the committee was reported out from the Committee on Elections this evening.

The SPEAKER. This bill has just been reported from the Committee on Elections with a negative recommendation—the one offered by the gentleman from Lancaster.

RESOLUTION.

THAT HOUSE BILL 728 BE PLACED ON CALENDAR.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer the following resolution.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the resolution.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

That House Bill No. 728 entitled "An Act to amend the twenty-sixth section of an act approved the 10th day of June Anno Domini 1893, entitled an act to regulate the nominations and elections, and of public officers requiring certain expenses incident thereto to be paid by the several counties, to punishing certain offences in regard to such elections by further regulating and giving of asistance to electors when voting" be placed on the calendar notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the Committee

The motion was twice read and laid over under the rules.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Piper.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent of the House to offer a motion at this time.

The SPEAKER. The motion will be read by the Clerk.

MOTION TO PLACE BILL ON CALENDAR.

The Clerk read the motion as follows:

That the Committe on Manufacture be discharged from further consideration of bill No. 796 on the pink calendar entitled "An Act to amend section 5 of an act entitled 'An Act to provide for the health and safety of minors in certain employments by regulating the the ages at which said minors may be employed, their hours of employment, their protection against injury, and to prescribe rules for the obtaining of employment certificates and providing penalties for violation of the provisions thereof' approved the twenty-ninth day of April Anno Domini, 1909 so as to reduce from 58 to 54 the maximum number of hours of employment of male minors under the age of sixteen years, and of females under the age of eighteen years

The motion was twice read and laid over under the rules.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 46, as follows:

An Act authorizing the erection and control of work-houses jointly by two or more counties of this Commonwealth and providing for commitments

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That from and after the passage of this act it shall be lawful for the county commissioners of any two or more counties of this Commonwealth whenever having first obtained approval of two consecutive grand juries of each county and of the court of quarter sessions of said counties to establish a work-house

Section 2 Any work-house erected under the provisions of this act shall be under the control of the joint board of county commissioners of the counties erecting the same and the said joint board of commissioners is hereby empowered to make such by-laws rules and regulations not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of the United States or of this Commonwealth as they may deem necessary and proper for the public welfare and the best interests of the institution and its inmates

Section 3 Said joint board of commissioners is authorized to use any suitable lands already held for county purposes or to purchase any quantity of lands within their respective counties not exceeding three hundred acres either with or without buildings thereon erected and to repair or erect such buildings and make such improvements thereon as they deem necessary and convenient for a work-house the title for said property in case of a purchase to be made to the proper counties

Section 4 When the accommodations necessary for carrying out the intentions of this act shall have been provided as aforesaid superintendent and matron and such other officers as may be deemed necessary shall be appointed by said joint board of commissioners whose duties shall be prescribed by the regulations of such workhouse and whose salaries shall be fixed by said joint board of commissioners and shall hold their offices respectively during the pleasure of said board of commissioners

Section 5 When the arrangements are completed for the reception of inmates it shall be the duty of the commissioners of each county to transfer from their respective county prisons to the work-house all persons having more than ten days to serve who shall have been committed for vagrancy drunkenness or disorderly conduct and also such other persons as the court of quarter sessions of each county may direct to be so transferred and thereafter when any person or persons shall be convicted in said court of either county of any offense the punishment whereof by existing laws is or may be imprisonment in the county jail said court may sentence such person or persons to either the said jail or work-house at its discretion and all committing magistrates in each county thereafter shall sentence to the work-house all persons convicted of vagrancy drunkenness or disorderly conduct or of any other offense for which they may now be sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail there to be fed and clothed and treated as provided for in this act and the rules and regulations of such work-house Provided That the superintendent may under the direction of the joint board of county commissioners or of the court of quarter sessions remove any inmate to the county prison of the proper county for the unexpired portion of his or her term of commitment or to the poorhouse of the proper city or county or to any hospital or lunatic asylum as circumstances may require

Section 6 It shall be lawful for any magistrate of either such county to commit a vagrant to such workhouse for a period not less than thirty days nor more than six months a disorderly person for not less than thirty days nor more than three months and any person convicted of drunkenness not exceeding thirty days Provided That if the sentence shall be for the period less than ten days the party shall be committed to the county prison of the proper county instead of the workhouse and on a second conviction for any of the foregoing causes the parties respectively may be sentenced for double the time of their former commitment

Section 7 Every person committed to a workhouse under the provisions of this act unless disqualified by sickness or otherwise shall be kept at the same useful employment such as may be suited to his or her age and capacity and such as shall be most profitable to the institution and tend to promote the best interests of the party and if any person shall refuse to perform the work assigned to him or her or be guilty of other acts of insubordination it shall be the duty of the superintendent to punish such person by close confinement on a diet of bread and water only or in such other manner as the rules and regulations hereinbefore provided for may prescribe of which refusal and punishment the superintendent shall keep a record and report to the joint board of county commissioners

Section 8 A separate apartment in said house shall be appropriated to the class of inebriates hereinafter described to be called the inebriate asylum whose inmates shall be subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by said commissioners

Section 9 The superintendent may receive under such regulations as may be prescribed any person or persons of intemperate habits who may make application for admission Provided That all expenses shall be paid by the party making application

Section 10 Whenever any person shall hereafter be found to be a habitual drunkard by due course of law it shall be lawful for the court of common pleas at their discretion instead of appointing a committee to take charge of this person to commit him to the inebriate asylum for a period not less than six months nor more than two years but the said court shall have power to modify such sentences or discharge such person whenever in the exercise of a sound discretion it may be deemed advisable to do so and if after the discharge of such person he or she shall relapse into his or her former habits of intemperance satisfactory proof of that fact being produced to the court the like sentence may be pronounced as in the first instance and so on after his or her second discharge as often as the said party shall so relapse

Section 11 It shall be lawful for the directors or guardians of the poor or for any father or mother husband or wife brother sister or child of any person who is in the habit of becoming intoxicated to apply by petition setting forth that fact verified by affidavit to any one of the judges of the court of common pleas who are hereby authorized under such reasonable rules of procedure as he may prescribe to hear the parties and determine the question and if satisfied that such person has been frequently intoxicated within six months immediately preceding such application such judge may commit such person to the inebriate asylum for a period not less than three months nor more than nine months and the same discretionary powers as are conferred on the court of common pleas in the tenth section of this act in relation to the modification discharge and recommitment of habitual drunkards are hereby conferred on each of the judges of the court of common pleas or district court of either county in relation to the persons whose commitment is provided for in this secton

Section 12 If any person committed under this act shall be of sufficient ability to pay the expenses of his or her keeping the court of common pleas is hereby authorized to make an order directing the amount to be paid at such times and in such manner as shall be deemed and equitable and such order shall be entered of record in said court and thenceforth shall have all the force and effect of a judgment obtained in that court and its payment may be inforced by execution as in other cases

Section 13 All the property real and personal authorized to be held by virtue of this act shall be exempt from taxation and levy and sale by virtue of execution or any other process

Section 14 The joint board of county commissioners may set apart a separate apartment in said work-house for the use of insane or feeble-minded patients committed to said institution by the proper authorities of either county Said commitment shall be made in accordance with the existing laws and the proper county is hereby authorized to collect from the estate of any such insane or feeble-minded inmate the expenses or maintenance of said inmate in such said workhouse

Section 15 The cost of the purchase of the necessary grounds and of the construction of said workhouse shall be paid jointly by the counties interested in proportion to the population of said counties The cost of the maintenance of the inmates of said workhouse shall be paid by the counties in proportion to the number of inmates from each county

Section 16 For the purpose of enabling the joint board of county commissioners of any two or more counties to purchase land and erect and complete the necessary buildings authorized by this Act of Assembly said commissioners are hereby authorized and directed to issue bonds coupon or registered based on the faith and credit of their respective said county to an amount not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand dollars of the denomination of one thousand five hundred and one hundred dollars each as may be desired bearing not more than five per centum interest annually and it shall not be lawful for said commissioners to sell or dispose of these bonds at less than their par value as expressed on the face of each and every bond and the proceeds of these bonds shall be applied by said joint board of county commissioners strictly and solely for the purpose contemplated in this Act of Assembly

Section 17 A detailed staement of the receipts and expenditures for any workhouse erected under the provisions of this act shall be published annually by the joint board of county commissioners in addition to the annual statement of the fiscal affairs of any county which is now or may be hereafter required by law

Section 18 That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 354.

Mr. DERSHEM. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 354, file folio 2037, failed on final passage last Wednesday evening be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 354, entitled:

An act requiring all employers to grant a certain time for the midday meal to each employe and fixing a penalty for violation thereof

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware, Mr. V. Gilpin Robinson.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House, as I understand this bill provides that every person, firm or corporation who in any manner shall violate any of the provisions of the first section of this act, or which shall employ any person in any manner or capacity, shall allow to such person a period of at least forty-five minutes for mid-day meals. I would like to ask whether if, for illustration, a lawyer had a stenographer in his office and happened to be specially pressed for time and asked her if she would be kind enough to make her mid-day meal thirty minutes instead of forty-five whether he would be liable to a penalty under this act.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Union permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DERSHEM. Yes, sir.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. I would like to ask the gentleman whether or not under the provisions of this bill it will be necessary to stop an express train in order that each employe of the railroad will have forty-five minutes in which to eat his lunch. The gentleman to my left put that question to me, and another gentleman makes the inquiry whether or not if firemen were engaged in putting out a fire it would be necessary to stop forty-five minutes in order that he might take a meal and let the house burn down? But, seriously, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House, it is not carrying matters to extremes to make something of this kind a crime—a matter which can be regulated by the employer of help? Is not this bill too general and are we not putting upon the statute books too many offenses? It does seem as if this bill ought to be voted down.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I think we are using imagination when we speak about the criminal phase of this bill. A man may strike another man on the back, but that man would immediately rush to a justice of the peace and swear out a warrant because his friend had struck him on the back, although technically that would be assault and battery. This bill is introduced in the interest of a large number of workers in the northeastern section of Philadelphia, where the lunch hour is sometimes so brief that they hardly get time to eat at all. It is simply a relationship between a specified employer and specified people, and should not touch a lawyer or his stenographer or anybody else of that class. This is something that concerns people in Kensington, in the textile district of Philadelphia, and asking that a reasonable time be given to them to get something to eat, and I trust that this bill will pass the House.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, the bill says that any person who shall employ any person in any manner or capacity shall allow such person a period of not less than forty-five minutes for the mid-day meal. Then it says in the second section "any person, firm or corporation that shall violate any of the provisions of the first section of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed $100 for each offence." We know that it says that any person who employs anybody in any capacity whatever who shall not allow to each and every one of them at least forty-five minutes for the mid-day meal, no matter what the circumstances be, I would ask you gentlemen whether under this act, if it passes, that person is not guilty of a crime.

Mr. RONEY. I will repeat that it would come in the same line with a man striking another man on the back, harmlessly, and then be charged with assault. A man would not do that; he does not begin any prosecution.

Mr. V. GILPIN ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, that is often made the pretext of unjust prosecution and very often is encouraged when there is no harm intended.

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 393, as follows:

An act to amend section one of an act entitled "An Act to provide revenue by taxation" approved the fifteenth day of July Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven providing for uniform method of taxing banks and savings institutions

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the first section of the act entitled "An Act to provide revenue by taxation" approved the fifteenth day of July Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven which reads as follows

"Section 1 That from and after the passage of this act every bank or savings institution having capital stock incorporated by or under any law of this Commonwealth or under any law of the United States and located within this Commonwealth shall on or before the twentieth day of June in each and every year make to the Auditor General a report in writing verified by the oath or affimation of the president cashier or treasurer setting forth the full number of shares of the capital stock subscribed for or issued by such bank or savings institution and the actual value thereof which shall be ascertained as heretofore provided whereupon it shall be the duty of the Auditor General to assess such shares for taxation at the same rate as that imposed upon other moneyed capital in the hands of individual citizens of the State that is to say at the rate of four mills upon each dollar of the actual value thereof the actual value of each share of stock to be ascertained and fixed by adding together the amount of capital stock paid in the surplus and undivided profits and dividing this amount by the number of shares The Auditor General shall have the power and it shall be his duty in case he shall not be satisfied with the correctness of the report as made by the officers of any bank or savings institution to summon the officers of said bank or savings institution to appear before him upon notice to do so on a day to be fixed by him and to bring with them the books of said bank or savings institution for his examination and he shall have the right to have further evidence to satisfy himself as to the correctness of the report made to him on the question of the value of the shares of stock of such bank or savings institution according to the rule hereinbefore stated After the Auditor General shall have fixed the value of the shares of stock in any bank or savings institution by the method hereinbefore provided and settled an account according to law shall thereupon transmit to the president cashier or treasurer of such bank or savings institution a copy of such settlement showing the valuation and assessment so made by him and the amount of tax due the Commonwealth on all such shares And it shall be the duty of the president cashier or treasurer of any such bank or savings institution immediately upon the receipt of said settlement to post the same in a conspicuous place in such bank or savings institution so as to give notice to the shareholders of such valuation and it shall be the duty of the Auditor General to hear any shareholder upon the subject of the valuation of such shares of stock at the Auditor General's office within a period of thirty days from the date of said settlement It shall be the duty of every bank or savings institution within a period of forty days after the date of such settlement by the Auditor General at its option to pay the amount of said tax to the State Treasurer from its general fund or collect the same from its shareholders and pay over to the State Treasurer Provided That if any such bank or savings institution shall fail or refuse to make such report or to pay any such tax at the time herein specified or shall make any false statement in such report or shall fail or refuse by its officers to appear before the Auditor General upon notice as aforesaid or shall fail or refuse to produce its books for examination when required by the Auditor General to do so he shall after having ascertained the actual value of each share of the capital stock of such bank or savings institution from the best information he can obtain add thereto fifty per centum as a penalty assess the tax as aforesaid and proceed according to law to collect the same from such bank or savings institution Provided further That if the president cashier or treasurer of any such bank or savings institution shall neglect or refuse to post the copy of the settlement in a conspicuous place in such bank or savings institution immediately upon the receipt of the same so as to give notice to the shareholders such president cashier or treasurer shall be adjudged to be in default and as a penalty for such default such bank or savings institution shall be responsible to the Commonwealth for the amount of the tax assessed against the share-holders of such bank or savings institution And provided further That in case any bank or savings institution having capital stock incorporated under the laws of this State or of the United States shall collect annualy from the shareholders thereof said tax of four mills on the dollar upon the actual value of all the shares of stock of said bank or savings institution according to the rule hereinbefore stated that have been subscribed for or issued and paid the same into the State Treasury on or before the first day of March in each year the shares and so much of the capital and profits of such bank or savings institution as shall not be invested in real estate shall be exempt from local taxation under the laws of this Commonwealth and such bank or savings institution shall not be required to make any report to the local assessor or county commissioners of its personal property owned by it in its own right for purposes of taxation and shall not be required to pay any tax thereon Except however that any bank or savings institution incorporated as aforesaid in lieu of the method hereinbefore set out for ascertaining the actual value of the shares of capital stock thereof may elect to collect annually from the stockholders thereof a tax of ten mills on the dollar upon the par value of all shares of said bank that have been subscribed for or issued and pay the same into the State Treasury on or before the first day of March in each year and the shares of such bank or savings institution and so much of the capital and profits of such bank or savings institution as shall not be invested in real estate shall be exempted from local taxation under the laws of this Commonwealth" shall be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 That from and after the passage of this act every bank or savings institution having capital stock incorporated by or under any law of this Commonwealth or under any law of the United States and located within this Commonwealth shall on or before the twentieth day of June in each and every year make to the Auditor General a report in writing verified by the oath or affimation of the president cashier or treasurer setting forth the full number of shares of the capital stock subscribed for or issued by such bank or savings institution and the actual value thereof which shall be ascertained as hereinbefore provided whereupon it shall be the duty of the Auditor General to assess such shares for taxation at the same rate as that imposed upon other moneyed capital in the hands NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. ANDERSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Bill No. 288, file folio 1301, bills on third reading postponed for the present, on page 53 of to-night's calendar, at the request of the sponsor of the bill, the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Leh.

Agreeably,

The House resumed the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 288, entitled:

An Act reequiring unnaturalized foreign born residents or sojourners to procure a license before fishing in this Commonwealth and providing penalties for violation of its provisions

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ANDERSON. Mr. Speaker, this bill was amended in committee and through an oversight or error on the part of the printer the amendment was not properly noted. I therefore ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time to correct the matter.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

In line 31, section 1, strike out the word "ten" and insert the word "five" instead; in line 32, section 1 strike out the word "eight" and insert the word "four" instead.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to insert the amendment as read? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

The bill as amended was then agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 415, entitled:

An Act to amend the sixth section of an act approved April twenty-third Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and three entitled "An Act defining the powers of the several courts of quarter sessions of the peace within this Commonwealth with reference to the care treatment and control of dependent neglected incorrigible and delinquent children under the age of sixteen years and providing for the means in which such power may be exercised" by providing that the court may direct that the board of such children be paid by the proper county

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Enbody
Snavely

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

SPEAKER COX in the Chair.

Mr. WILLIAM CONNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Bill No. 652, file folio, 3437, bills on third reading, page 47 of to-night's calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 652, entitled:

An Act to repeal so much of an act entitled "An Act to prohibit the issuing of licenses to sell spirituous vinous malt or brewed liquors in the borough of Braddock borough of Sewickley township of Wilkins Versailles Penn North Fayette South Fayette Sewickley Leet and Kilbuck in the county of Allegheny approved the ninth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy" as relates to or affects the borough of Rankin formerly a part of the township of Wilkins in the county of Allegheny

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WILLIAM CONNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 1, line 5, by striking out the word "male" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "malt."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to insert the amendment as read? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

The bill as amended was then agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be prepared for final passage.

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. TOWNSEND. Mr. Speaker, I move to strike from the calendar House Bill No. 271, file folio 1211, entitled:

An act to amend the fifth section of an act approved the fourteenth day of April Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and three entitled "An Act for the creation and government of a division of the State Library for the preservation of public records" by permitting the various State Departments to deposit with the Division all papers not needed and authorizing county officers to turn over records to the Division and providing for their repair which is on page 53 of to-night's calendar, a duplicate bill from the Senate having passed third reading.

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following communication which was read and referred to the Committee on Appropriations:

American Philosophical Society held at Philadelphia for promoting useful knowledge. (Founded 1743.)
104 South Fifth Street. Adopted April 22, 1911.

RESOLUTION ON CHESTNUT BLIGHT DISEASE.

Whereas There has appeared in the eastern United States a destructive fungus disease of the chestnut tree, known as the chestnut blight, which as a disease in epidemic form threatens to destroy the native chestnut through North America.

Be it resolved, That the American Philosophical Society in General Meeting assembled heartily supports appropriate legislation in Pennsylvania, in other states, or by the national government looking to the eradication of the disease by the establishment of a quarantine, or by other more drastic measures of destroying the diseased trees along the outposts of the infected areas, and be it

Resolved That the members of the national Congress and the members of the several state legislatures are requested to adopt such legislation, as above mentioned and appropriate sufficiently large sums of money with the view of stamping out the disease before it reaches the main body of chestnut timber in the southern and southwestern deciduous forests of our country, and it is

Resolved That the members of the American Philosophical Society will support the movement begun in Pennsylvania looking to the eradication of the disease from our too rapidly disappearing forest areas.

W. W. KEEN, President.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. McINERNEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to and (at 11.45 P. M.) the House adjourned until to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

First A provision that all premiums shall be payable in advance either at the home office of the company or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by one or more of the officers of the company who shall be named in the policy

Second A provision that the insured is entitled to a grace either of thirty days or one month within which the payment of any premium after the first year may be made subject at the option of the company to an interest charge not in excess of six per centum per annum for the number of days of grace elapsing before the payment of the premium during which period of grace the policy shall continue in full force but in case the policy becomes a claim during the said period of grace before the overdue premium or the deferred premiums of the current policy year if any are paid the amount of such premiums with interest on any overdue premium may be deducted in any settlement under the policy

Third A provision that the policy shall be incontestible after not more than two years from its date of issue except for nonpayment of premiums and for engaging in military or naval service in time of war without the consent in writing of an executive officer of the company

Fourth A provision that the policy shall constitute the entire contract between the parties but if the company desires to make the application a part of the contract it may do so provided a copy of such application shall be endorsed upon or attached to the policy when issued and in such case the policy shall contain a provision that the policy and the application therefor shall constitute the entire contract between the parties

Fifth A provision that if the age of the insured has been misstated the amount payable under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age

Sixth A provision that the policy shall participate in the surplus of the company and that beginning not later than the end of the third policy year the company will annually determine the portion of the divisible surplus accruing on the policy and that the owner of the policy shall have the right to have the dividend arising from such participation paid in cash or applied to the payment of premiums or the purchase of paid up additions to the policy as the policy holder may elect

In lieu of the foregoing provision the policy may contain a provision that the policy shall participate in the surplus of the company and that beginning not later than the end of the tenth policy year the company will determine the portion of the divisible surplus accruing on the policy and that the owner of the policy shall have the right to have the current dividend arising from such participation paid in cash and that at periods of not more than five years thereafter such apportionment and payment at the option of the policyholder shall be had

Renewable term policies of ten years or less may provide that the surplus accruing to such policies shall be determined and apportioned each year after the second policy year and accumulated during each renewal period and that at the end of any renewal period on renewal of the policy by the insured the company shall apply the accumulated surplus as an annuity for the next succeeding renewal term in the reduction of premiums

Seventh A provision specifying the options to which the policyholder is entitled in the event of default in a premium payment after three full annual premiums shall have been paid

Eighth A provision that after three full years' premiums have been paid the company at any time while the policy is in force will advance on proper assignment or pledge of the policy and on the sole security thereof at a specified rate of interest a sum equal to or at the option of the owner of the policy less than the reserve at the end of the current policy year on the policy and on any dividend additions thereto less a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and of any dividend additions thereto and that the company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year which provision may further provide that such loan may be deferred for not exceediig six months after the application therefor is made A company may in lieu of the provision hereinabove permitted for the deduction from a loan on the policy of a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and of any dividend additions thereto insert in the policy a provision that one-fifth of the entire reserve may be deducted in case of a loan under the policy or may provide therein that the deduction may be the said two and one-half per centum or the one-fifth of the said entire reserve at the option of the company

Ninth A provision which in event of default in premium payments after premiums shall have been paid for three years shall secure to the owner of the policy a stipulated form of insurance the net value of which shall be at least equal to the reserve at the date of default on the policy and on any dividend additions thereto specifying the mortality table and rate of interest adopted for computing such reserves less a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and of any existing dividend additions thereto and less any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy Such provision shall stipulate that the policy may be surrendered to the company at its home office within one month from date of default for a specified cash value at least equal to the sum which would otherwise be available for the purchase of insurance as aforesaid and may stipulate that the company may defer payment for not more than six (6) months after the application therefor is made

This provision shall not be required in term insurance of twenty years or less

Tenth A table showing in figures the loan value if any and the options available under the policy each year upon default in premium payments during at least the first twenty years of the policy and if the proceeds of a policy are payable in installments or as an annuity a table showing the amount of the installment or annuity payments

Eleventh A provision that the holder of a policy shall be entitled to have the policy reinstated at any time within three years from the date of default in premium payments unless the cash surrender value has been duly paid or the extension period expired upon the production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of all overdue premiums and any other indebtedness to the company upon said policy with interest at the rate of not exceeding six per centum per annum

Twelfth A provision that when a policy shall become a claim by the death of the insured settlement shall be made upon receipt of due proof of death

Any of the foregoing provisions or parts thereof not applicable to single premium or non-participating or term policies shall to that extent not be incorporated therein and paragraph eight shall not apply to companies of other states and foreign governments Provided however That the policies of a life insurance company organized under the laws of any other state or foreign government may contain when issued in this Commonwealth any provision which may be prescribed by the laws of the state or government under which the company is organized and the policies of a life insurance company organized under the laws of this Commonwealth may when issued in any other state territory or foreign country contain any provision required by the laws of such state territory or foreign country to be contained in policies issued therein

Section 26 No policy of life insurance shall be issued or delivered in this Commonwealth or be issued by any life insurance company organized under the laws of this Commonwealth except policies of industrial insurance where the premiums are payable monthly or oftener if it contain any of the following provisions

A Any provision for forfeiture of the policy for failure to repay any loan on the policy or to pay interest on any such loan while the total indebtedness on the policy is less than the cash value thereof In ascertaining the indebtedness due upon the policy loan the interest if not paid when due shall be added to the principal of such loan and shall bear interest at the rate specified in the note or loan agreement

B Any provision limiting the time within which any action at law or in equity may be commenced to less than two years after the cause of action shall accrue

C Any provision by which the policy shall purport to be issued or to take effect more than six months before the original application for the insurance was made

D Any provision for a mode of settlement at maturity of less value than the amount insured on the face of the policy plus dividend additions if any less the indebtedness to the company on the policy and less any premiums that may by the terms of the policy be deducted

Section 19 Old house drains and sewers may be used in connection with new buildings or new plumbing only when they are found on examination by the board or bureau of health to conform in all respects to the requirements governing new sewers and drains All extensions to old house drains must be of extra heavy cast-iron pipe

Section 20 All buildings shall be kept provided with proper metallic leaders for conducting water from the roofs in such manner as shall protect the walls and foundations of said building from injury In no case shall the water from said leaders be allowed to flow upon the sidewalks but the same shall be conducted by a pipe or pipes to the sewer If there be no sewer in the street upon which such buildings front then the water from said leaders shall be conducted by proper pipe or pipes below the surface of the sidewalk to the street gutter

Section 21 Inside leaders must be constructed of cast-iron wrought iron or steel with roof connections made gas and water-tight by means of a heavy lead or copper drawn tubing wiped or soldered to a brass ferrule or nipple caulked or screwed into the pipe The tubing must extend at least seven (7) inches into iron leader pipe Outside leaders may be sheet metal but they must connect with the house by means of a cast iron pipe extending vertically five (5) feet above the grade level

Section 22 All leaders must be trapped with cast-iron running traps so placed as to prevent freezing

Section 23 Rainwater leaders must not be used as soil waste or vent pipes nor shall such pipes be used as a leader

Section 24 No steam exhaust blow-off or drip-pipe shall connect with a sewer or house drain leader soil-pipe waste or vent pipe Such pipes must discharge into a tank on condenser from which suitable outlet to the sewer shall be made Such condensers shall be water supplied to help condensation and protect the sewer and shall also be supplied with relief vent to carry off dry steam

Section 25 The smallest diameter of any soil-pipe permitted to be used shall be four-inch

The size of soil-pipes must not be less than those set forth in the following tables

Maximum number and fixtures connected to

Size of Pipe	Branch	Soil and waste combined Main
4 inch	48 fixtures	96 fixtures
5 inch	96 fixtures	192 fixtures
6 inch	298 fixtures	336 fixtures

Size of Pipe	Branch	Soil-pipe, alone Main
4 inch	8 waterclosets	16 waterclosets
5 inch	16 waterclosets	32 waterclosets
6 inch	34 waterclosets	68 waterclosets

If the building is six (6) and less than twelve (12) stories in heighth the diameter shall be not less than five (5) inches if more than twelve (12) stories it shall be six (6) inches in diameter A building six or more stories in heighth with fixtures located below the sixth floor soil-pipe four (4) inches in diameter will be allowed to extend through the roof provided the number of fixtures does not exceed the number given in the table

All soil-pipes must extend at least two feet above the highest window and must not be reduced in size Traps will not be permitted on main vertical soil or waste lines Each house must have a separate line of soil and vent pipes No soil or waste line shall be constructed on the outside of a building

Fixtures with
One and one-quarter-inch traps count as one fixture
Two-inch traps count as two fixtures
Two and one-half-inch traps count as three fixtures
Three-inch traps (waterclosets) count as four fixtures
Four-inch traps count as five fixtures

Section 26 All sewer soil and waste pipes must be as direct as possible Changes in direction must be made with "Y" or half "Y" branches or one-eighth bends Offsets in soil or waste pipes will not be permitted when they can be avoided nor in any case unless suitable provision is made to prevent accumulation of rust or other obstruction Offsets shall be made with forty-five degree bends or similar fittings The use of T-"Ys" (sanitary Ts) will be permitted on upright lines only

Section 27 Joints in cast-iron pipes and soil and waste pipes must be so filled with oakum and lead and hand caulked as to make them gas-tight Connections of lead and cast-iron pipes must be made with brass sleeve or ferrule of the same size as the lead pipe inserted in the hub of the iron pipe and caulked with lead The lead pipe must be attached to the ferrule by wiped joint Joints between lead and wrought-iron pipes must be made with brass nipple of same size as lead pipe The lead pipe must be attached to the nipple by wiped joint All connections of lead waste pipe must be made by means of wiped joints

Section 28 Every sink bathtub basin watercloset slop-hopper or fixtures having a waste pipe must be furnished with a trap which shall be placed as close as practicable to the fixture that it serves and in no case shall they be more than one foot from said fixtures The waste pipe from the bathtub or other fixtures must not be connected with a watercloset trap

Size of Horizontal and Vertical Waste Pipe Traps and Branches

Horizontal and Vertical	Number of Small Fixtures
1¼ inches	1
1½ inches	2
2 inches	3 to 8
2½ inches	9 to 20
3 inches	21 to 44

If building is ten (10) or more stories in height the vertical waste pipe shall not be less than three (3) inches in diameter The use of wrought-iron pipe for waste pipe two 'nches or less in diameter is prohibited

The size of traps and waste branches for a given fixture shall be as follows

Kind of Fixtures	Size in Inches
	Trap	Branch
Watercloset	3	4
Slop sink with trap combined	3	3
Slop sink ordinary	2	2
Pedestal urinal	3	3
Floor drain or wash	4	4
Yard drain or catch basin	4	4
Urinal trough	2	2
Laundry traps (2 or 5)	2	2
Combination sink and tray (for each fixture)	1½	2
Kitchen sinks (small) for dwellings	1½	1½
Kitchen sinks (large) hotels restaurants grease trap	...	2
Pantry sinks	1½	1½
Wash basin one only	1¼	1¼
Bathtubs 4x10 inches drum trap	...	1½
Shower baths	1½	1½
Shower baths (floor)	2	2
Sitz baths	1½	1⅓
Drinking fountains	1¼	1¼

Section 30 Overflow pipes from fixtures must in all cases be connected on the inlet side of traps

Section 31 Sediment pipes from kitchen boilers must not be connected on the outlet side of traps

Section 32 All traps must be well supported and set true with respect to their water levels The sizes for traps must not be less than those given in the following

Traps for waterclosets four inches in diameter

Traps for slop sinks one and one-half to three inches in diameter

Traps for kitchen sinks one and one-half inches in diameter

Traps for wash trays two inches in diameter

Traps for (bowl) urinals one and one-half inches in diameter

Traps for wash stands one and one-fourth inches in diameter All bathtubs shall be supplied with drum trap not less than three inches in diameter with three-inch trap screws on floor line In case where additional fixture is required in a building and it is impossible to get re-vent pipes for the trap the board or bureau of health shall designate the kind of trap to be used This shall not be construed to allow traps without re-vents in new buildings

Section 33 Safe waste-pipes must not connect directly with any part of the plumbing system Safe waste-pipes must discharge over an open water supplied publicly placed ordinarily used sink placed not more than three and one-half feet above the cellar floor The safe waste from a refrigerator must be trapped at the bottom of the line only and must not discharge upon the ground floor but over an ordinary portable pan or some properly trapped water supplied sink as above In no case shall the refrigerator waste-pipe discharge over a sink located in a room used for living purposes

The branches on vertical lines must be made by "Y" fittings and be carried to the safe with as much pitch as possible Where there is an offset on a refrigerator waste-pipe in cellar there must be clean-outs to control the horizontal part of the pipe

In tenement and lodging houses the refrigerator waste-pipes must extend above the roof and not be larger than one and one-half inches Refrigerator waste-pipes except in tenement houses and all safe waste-pipes must have brass flap-valves at their lower ends Lead safes must be graded and neatly turned over beveled strips at their edges

Section 34 All vent-pipes must be either of lead brass loricated porcelain enameled iron or galvanized iron pipe

Section 35 All traps shall be protected from siphonage or air pressure by special ventpipes of a size not less than the following tables

Size of Pipe	Maximum Developed Length in Feet
	Mains
1 1-4 inch vent	20
1 1-2 inch vent	40
2 inch vent	65
2 1-2 inch vent	100
3 inch vent	10 or more stories

Number of Traps Vented

Branch	Main Vertical
2 or less
10 or less	20 or less
20 or less	40 or less
60 or less	100 or less

The branch vent-pipes shall not be less than the following sizes One and one-fourth inches in diameter for one and one-fourth inch traps One and one-half inches in diameter for one and one-half inch to two and one-half inch traps Two inches in diameter for three-inch to four-inch traps One-half of their diameter for traps five inches and over

Where two (2) or more water closets are placed side by side on a horizontal branch the branch line shall have a relief extended as a loop vent A pipe two (2) inches in diameter will be sufficient as a loop vent for (2) closets A pipe three (3) inches in diameter shall be used as a relief for three (3) or four (4) closets and where more than (4) closets are located on the same branch the relief shall not be less than four (4) inches in diameter All house drains and soil lines on which a water closet is located must have a four-inch main vent line where an additional closet is located in the cellar or basement and within ten feet of main soil or vent line no relief vent will be required for said closet but where it is more than ten (10) feet a two-inch vent line will be required Relief vent pipes for water closets must not be less than two inches in diameter for a length of forty feet and not less than three inches in diameter for more than forty feet

No re-vent traps under bell traps will be required

Any building having a sewer connection with a public or private sewer used for bell trap connections or floor drainage only a two-inch relief line must be extended to the roof of building from rear end of main drain House drains constructed for roof drainage only will not require a relief vent.

A floor trap for a shower shall be vented unless located in cellar or ground floor the paving of which renders the trap inaccessible If the number of these fixtures on a branch is two (2) or more the waste line shall be extended as a loop vent instead of back venting the separate traps and when located in basement floor they shall be provided with a removable strainer or cleanout Back vent pipes from traps above the floor must either be connected with crown of traps with ground in brass or if connected solidly to trap must have a ground-in brass coupling or if connected solidly to trap must have a ground-in brass coupling at wall

Section 36 Where rows of fixtures are placed in a line fittings of not less than forty-five (45) degrees to the horizontal must be used on vent lines to prevent filling with rust or condensation except on brick or tile walls where it is necessary to channel same for pipes ninety (90) degrees fittings will be allowed Trapped vent pipes are strictly prohibited No vent pipe from house side of any trap shall connect with ventilation pipe or with sewer soil or waste pipe Vent pipes from several traps may be connected together or may be carried into the main vent line above the highest fixture Where one vertical vent line connects with another a "Y" fitting must be used Branch vent pipes must be connected as near to crown of trap as possible

Section 37 All offsets on vent lines must be made at an angle of not less than forty-five degrees to the horizontal and all lines must be connected at the bottom with a soil or waste pipe or the drain in such manner as to prevent the accumulation of rust scale or condemnation

Section 38 Rubber connections for back vents will not be permitted without double coupling and thimble inside

Section 39 No brick sheet metal or earthen ware flue or chimney flue shall be used as a sewer ventilator or to ventilate any trap drain soil or waste pipe

Section 40 Soldering nipples must be extra heavy brass or brass pipe iron pipe size

Section 41 Brass screw caps for cleanouts must be extra heavy not less than one-eighth of an inch thick The screw cap must have a solid square or hexagonal nut not less than one inch high The body of cleanout ferrule must at least equal in weight and thickness the caulking ferrule for the same size pipe

Section 42 Brass ferrules must be of best quality bell shaped extra heavy cast brass not less than four inches long and two and one-quarter inches three and one-half inches and four and one-half inches in diameter and not less than the following weights

Diameter two and one-fourth inches weight one pound

Diameter three and one-half inches weight one pound twelve ounces

Diameter four and one-half inches weight two pounds eight ounces

Section 43 The closet and all other fixtures must be set open and free from all enclosing wood or other work Where water closets will not support a rim-set the seat must be supported on galvanized iron legs and a drip tray must be used which tray must be porcelain enameled on both sides and secured in place In tenement houses and lodging houses sinks must be entirely open set on iron legs or brackets without any enclosing wood or other work

Section 44 Pan plunger or hopper closets will not be permitted in any building No range closet either wet or dry nor an evaporating system of closets shall be constructed or allowed inside of any building

A separate building constructed especially for the purpose must be provided in which such range closets shall be set

Section 45 All earthenwear traps must have heavy brass floor plates soldered to the lead bends and bolted to trap flange and the joint made permanently secure and gas-tight

Section 46 Water closets must not be located in sleeping apartments not in any room or compartment which has not direct communication with external air either by window or air-shaft of at least four square feet

Section 47 No water closets except those placed in yards and flush meters volumeters or similar devices shall be supplied directly from the supply pipes

Section 48 All water closets must have flushing rim bowl

Water closets to be supplied from flushing tanks

Section 49 Water closets within buildings shall be supplied with water from special tanks or cisterns which shall hold not less than six gallons when filled to the level of the overflow pipe for each closet supplied excepting automatic or siphon tanks which shall not hold less than five gallons for each closet supplied A group of closets may be flushed from one tank but water closets on different floors must not be flushed from the same tank except flushmeters volumeters or similar devices The water in said tanks must not be used for any other purpose

Section 50 In no case will the water closet system of tenement or lodging houses be permitted in cellars basements or under sidewalks

Section 51 In all sewer connected occupied buildings there must be at least one water closet and there must be additional closets so as there never will be more than fifteen persons per closet In lodging houses where there are more than fifteen persons on any floor there must be an additional water closet on that floor for every additional persons or fraction thereof

Section 52 In tenement houses lodging houses factories work shops and all public buildings the entire water closet apartments and side walls to a heighth of sixteen inches from the floor except at the door must be made water proof with asphalt cement tile or other water-proof material as approved by the board or bureau of health In tenement houses and lodging houses the water closet and urinal apartment must have a window or windows opening into the outer air of sufficient size all of which shall be shown on plans and shall be subject to the approval of the board or bureau of health Except that tenement or lodging houses three stories or less in height may have such window opening on a ventilating shaft not less than ten square feet in area In all buildings the outer partition of such apartments must extend to the ceiling or be independently ceiled over and these partitions must be air-tight The outside partitions must include a window opening to outer air on the lot whereon the building is situated or some other approved means of ventilation must be provided When necessary to properly light such apartments the upper part of the partitions must be of glass The interior partitions of such apartments must be dwarft partitions

Section 53 All urinals must be constructed of materials impervious to moisture and that will not corrode under the action of urine The floor and walls of urinal apartments must be lined with similar non-absorbent and non-corrosive material

Section 54 The platforms or treads of urinal stalls must not be connected independently to the plumbing system nor can they be connected to any safe waste-pipe

Section 55 Iron trough water closets and trough urinals must be porcelain enameled or galvanized cast iron

Section 56 All water closets and other fixtures must be provided with a sufficient supply of water for flushing to keep them in a proper and cleanly condition

Section 57 Water closet flush pipes must not be less than one and one-quarter inches and urinal flush pipes one-half inch in diameter

Section 58 The copper lining of water closet and urinal cisterns must not be lighter than twelve ounce copper and must be stamped on lining with maker's name Where lead is used for lining it must not weigh less than four pounds to the square foot All other materials are prohibited

Section 59 Wooden wash trays sinks or bath tubs are prohibited inside of buildings Such fixtures must be constructed of non-absorbent material Cement or artificial tubs will not be permitted unless approved by the board or bureau of health

Section 60 Water closets when located in yard must be so arranged as to be conveniently and adequately flushed and the water supply pipes and traps protected from freezing by being placed in a hopper pit at least four feet below the surface of the ground the walls of which pit shall be constructed of hard burned brick or stone laid in cement mortar or of concrete and traps used inside pit must be extra heavy cast-iron and the trap to have a hand-hole for cleanout purposes The closet drain to be vented with a four-inch pipe and carried up above the root of closet away from any opening or window The water shall be supplied through an automatic seat action valve The waste from the valve shall be conveyed to the sewer through a half-inch lead pipe properly connected The enclosures of yard water closets shall be ventilated by slatted openings and there shall be a trap door in floor of sufficient size to permit of convenient access to the hopper pit

Section 61 No privy vault or cesspool for sewerage shall hereafter be constructed in any part of the city where a sewer is at all accessible which shall be determined by the department board or bureau of health nor shall it be lawful to continue a privy vault or cesspool on any lot piece or parcel of ground abutting on or contiguous to any public sewer within the city limits The department or board or bureau of health shall have the power to issue notice giving at least three months' time to discontinue the use of any cesspool and have it cleaned and filled up No connection from any cesspool or privy vault shall be made with any sewer nor shall any water closet or house drain empty into a cesspool or privy vault

Section 62 In rural districts or districts where no sewer exists privy vaults shall not be located within two feet of party or street line nor within twenty feet of any building Before any privy vault shall be constructed application for permission therefor shall be made to the department or board or bureau of health and such privy vault shall have nine-inch walls constructed of hard burned brick or stone laid in cement so as to be water-tight size to be no less than four feet in diameter and six feet deep

Section 63 All material used in the work of plumbing and drainage must be of good quality and free from defects The work must be executed in a thorough and workmanlike manner

Section 64 No person firm or corporation carrying on the business of plumbing and house drainage shall allow his or their name to be used by any person directly or indirectly either to obtain a permit or permits or to do any work under his or their license

Section 65 The term "private sewer" is applied to main sewers that are not constructed by and under the supervision of the department of public works

The term "house sewer" is applied to that part of the main drain or sewer extending from a point five feet outside of the outer wall of a building vault or area to its connection with public sewer private sewer or cesspool

The term "house drain" is applied to that part of the main horizontal drain and its branches inside the walls of the building vault or area and extending to and connecting with the house sewer

The term "soil-pipe" is applied to any vertical line of pipe extending through the roof receiving the discharge of one or more water closets with or without other fixtures

The term "waste-pipe" is applied to any pipe extending through roof receiving the discharge from any fixtures except water closets

The term "vent-pipe" is applied to any special pipe provided to ventilate the system of piping and to prevent trap siphonage and back pressure

Section 66 Whenever it shall come to the knowledge of the department or board or bureau of health or complaint in writing shall be made by any citizen that the plumbing or drainage in any building has become a nuisance or is contrary to the provisions and requirements of this act or the ordinances of the city or is of faulty construction and liable to breed disease or endanger the health of the occupants or upon the request of any owner or occupant of any building fitted with plumbing or drainage prior to the passage of this act then the department or board or bureau of health shall direct the proper officer to examine the plumbing or drainage in any such building and the said officer shall make a drawing of the plan of said plumbing drainage and sewer and ventilating shaft connections He shall report his findings in writing to the department or board of health and suggest such changes as are necessary to make the same conform to the rules governing such matters

The department or board or bureau of health shall thereupon notify the owner or agent of any such building of the changes which are necessary to be made in said plumbing or drainage Said changes shall be made within the time fixed by the department or board or bureau of health and upon refusal or neglect to obey such orders the department or board or bureau of health shall institute legal proceedings to have such changes made and said nuisance abated by action before a justice of the peace or court of record in which said action the owner or agent of said building may show in defence that the plumbing or drainage was not a nuisance or was not of faulty construction or out of repair and in case of a building constructed subsequent to the passage of this act said plumbing or drainage was not contrary to the provisions and requirements of this act or the ordinances of the city

Section 67 When drain soil waste vent and other pipes in the building connected or to be connected with the sewer have been placed in position a preliminary water or air test of the same shall be applied in the presence of an officer of the board or bureau of health

Section 68 When the work has been completed a final notice shall be filed with the board or bureau of health when a final air or peppermint test shall be made in the presence of said officer when if found satisfactory a certificate of approval of the work will be issued but no such plumbing or drainage work shall be used until said test has been made and certificate issued

Section 69 When work is ready for inspection the plumbing contractor shall make such arrangements as will enable the proper officer to reach all parts of the building easily and readily and also have present the proper apparatus and appliances for making said tests and furnish such assistance as may be necessary to a proper application of the same

Section 70 In case of any dispute or difference of opinions existing between the department or board or bureau of health and any person firm or corporation as aforesaid regarding the construction of plumbing house drainage or cess-pools the same shall be submitted by either party to the director of the department of public health and charities or bureau of health who shall pass upon the same and whose finding therein after hearing shall be final and conclusive upon all parties

Section 71 Any person or persons who shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this act regarding the procuring of a license or certificate to engage in or work at the business of plumbing or house drainage shall be liable to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor exceeding fifty dollars for each and every day he or they shall engage in or work at the said business without first having obtained said certificate or license and any person or persons who shall violate any of the rules regulations or requirements set forth in the act regarding the construction reconstruction or testing of plumbing house drainage or cesspools shall be liable for every such offence to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars which fines shall be recoverable before any alderman or police magistrate in said cities by summary proceeding and shall be sued for in the name of such cities and when collected shall be paid into the treasury thereof

All fines and penalties imposed by this act shall be summary proceeding before any police magistrate or justice of the peace in said cities and all suits or actions at law instituted for the recovery thereof shall be in the name and for the use of the city within or against which offence is committed and upon recovery thereof all such fines and penalties shall be paid to the city treasurer thereof In default of payment of any fine or penalty imposed by any police magistrate or justice of the peace under the provisions of this act the person or persons so offending may be committed to the jail or work-house or other penal institution of the county in which city is situated for a period not exceeding thirty days

Section 72 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act or supplied thereby are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KEYSER. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Section 25 That all casualty insurance companies heretofore or hereafter incorporated or formed by authority of any general or special law except those exempt by the terms thereof shall be subject to the provisions and requirements of this act

Section 26. That on and after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and twelve no policy of insurance against loss or damage from disease or by the bodily injured by accident or both of the assured shall be issued or delivered in this State (1) until a copy of the form thereof and the table of rates or manual of risks of the company has been filed at least thirty (30) days with the Insurance Commissioner unless before the expiration of said thirty (30) days the Insurance Commissioner shall have approved the same in writing nor (2) if the Insurance Commissioner notfies the company in writing that in his opinion the form of said policy does not comply with the requirements of the laws of this State specifying the reasons for his opinion provided that upon the petition of the company the opinion of the Insurance Commissioner shall be subject to review by any against loss or damage from disease or by the bodily injury by so issued or delivered unless every portion is plainly printed in type not smaller than long primer or ten point type nor (4) unless it contains in substance the following provisions

One A provision that such policy with a copy of the application therefor if any and of such other papers as may be attached to or endorsed thereon shall constitute the entire contract of insurance except as the same may be affected by any table of rates or classification of risks filed by the company with the Insurance Commissioner

Two A provision that no statment made by the applicant for insurance which statement is not incorporated in or endorsed on the policy issued to such applicant shall avoid the policy or be used in evidence and no provision of the charter constitution or by-laws shall be used in defense of any claims arising under any such policy unless such provisions are incorporated in full in the policy but this requirement shall not be deemed to apply to the table of rates or manual of classification of risks of any company filed with the Insurance Commissioner prior to the date of the occurence of the injury or commencement of the sickness for which indemnity is claimed

Three A provision that specifies the time within which notice of accident or disability shall be given which time shall be not less than twenty days from the date of the accident nor less than ten days from the date of the beginning of the disability from sickness upon which claim is based provided however in case of accidental death immediate notice thereof may be required unless the notices herein specified may be shown not to have been reasonably possible

Four A provision that notice of a claim for indemnity shall be deemed sufficient when given to the home office or a duly authorized agent of the company

Five A provision that if a past due premium shall be accepted by the company or by a branch office or by an authorized agent of the company in the city town or county in which the insured shall reside or by the duly authorized agent of the company who accepted the last premium on the policy if so authorized at the time of the acceptance of the past due premium such acceptance shall reinstate the policy in full as to disability resulting from accidental bodily injuries thereafter sustained but shall only reinstate the policy as to disability from disease beginning more than ten days after the date of such acceptance

Six A provision that if the insured is injured or contracts disease after having changed his occupation to one classified by the company as more hazardous than that stated in the policy or while he is doing any act or thing pertaining to any occupation so classified (except ordinary duties about his residence or while engaged in recreation) the company shall pay such proportion of the indemnities provided in the policy as the premium paid would have purchased at the rate but within the limits fixed by the company for such more hazardous occupation according to the company's rates and classifications of risks filed with the Insurance Commissioner in this State prior to the occurrence of the injury or the commencement of the disease for which indemnity is claimed

Seven A provision that the company will pay the benefits promised within sixty days of the receipt by it of due proofs of death or disability

Eight A provision that the policy may be cancelled at any time by the company by written notice delivered to the insured or mailed to him at his last address as shown by the records of the company and the tender of the company's check for the unearned premium but that such cancellation shall be without prejudice to any claim arising on account of disability commencing prior to the date of which the cancellation takes effect

Nine A provision that shall not limit the time within which proofs of claims shall be furnished to the company to a period less than ninety days from the date of death dismemberment or loss of sight or from the termination of any other disability

Section 27 No such policy insuring against accidental bodily injuries or disease or death shall be issued or delivered in this State if it contains in substance any of the following provisions

One A provision limiting the time within which an action at law or in equity may be commenced to less than one year from the date when the final proof of claim is filed with the company

Second A provision that no such policy shall authorize the deduction of any premium or assessment from any indemnity payable under the terms of the policy except such premium or assessment as may be due or covered by written order or note at the time of payment of the indemnity

Three A provision limiting the amount of indemnity to be paid to a sum less than the indemnity as stated in the policy and for which the premium has been paid Provided however if the assured shall carry other insurance covering the same hazard without giving written notice to the companies corporations or associations issuing the policies then and in that case each company corporation or association shall be liable for such proportionate amount of benefits as the indemnity promised bears to the total amount of indemnity in all the policies covering such hazard and for the return of such part of the premium paid as shall exceed the pro rata of the premium for the benefits paid

Section 28 No company or agent shall issue or deliver in this State any policy which conflicts with any provision of this act .A policy issued in violation of this act shall be held valid and shall be construed as provided in this act and when any provision in a policy is in conflict with any provision of this act the rights duties and obligations of the company and policy holder and the beneficiary shall be governed by the provisions of this act

Section 29 The policies of insurance against accidental injury or disease of a company not organized under the laws of this State may contain any provision which the law of the State territory or district of the United States under which the company is organized prescribes shall be in such policies when issued in this State and the policies of insurance against accidental injury or disease of a company organized under the laws of this State may when issued or delivered in any other State or territory district or country contain any provision required by the laws of the State territory district or country in which the same are issued anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding

Section 30 Nothing in this act however shall apply to or affect any general or blanket policy of insurance issued to any municipal corporation or department thereof or to any corporation copartnership association or individual employer police or fire department underwriter's corps salvage bureau or like associations or organizations where the officers members or employes or classes or departments thereof are insured against specified acidental bodily injuries or disease while exposed to the hazards of the occupation or otherwise for a premium intended to cover the risks of all the persons insured under such policy nor shall anything in this act apply to or affect contracts of life insurance or contracts supplemental thereto which shall contain provisions intended to safeguard such life insurance against lapse or that shall provide a special surrender value therefor in the event that the insured thereunder shall by reason of accidental bodily injury or disease be unable to continue the premium payments thereon

Section 31 Any company corporation or association to which this act applies or any officer thereof which issues or delivers in this State or to any citizen thereof any accident or health policy or contract in wilful violation of the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense and the Insurance Commissioner may revoke the license of any foreign company or agent thereof which violates any provision of this act

Section 32 No person partnership or association shall issue sign or seal or in any manner execute any policy of insurance contracts of guaranty against loss by any of the casualties provided for in this act without authority expressly conferred by a charter of incorporation given according to law provided nothing herein contained shall prevent any one from becoming and being accepted as personal surety or guarantor Any person offending against the provisions of this section or any person who shall make execute or issue any policy of insurance contract or guaranty against loss by sickness accident or other casualty without being so authorized by law shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars to the Commonwealth and the costs of prosecution

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the second section of an act approved the first day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and seven entitled "An Act relating to the appointment of stenographers and assistant stenographers to report proceedings in the several courts of common pleas and orphans' courts courts of oyer and terminer and general jail delivery and courts of quarter sessions of the peace of this Commonwealth as well as before commissioners masters and special masters in chancery referees examiners auditors and other officers prescribing their powers and duties and when such reports shall be evidence of the facts reported prescribing their compensation and allowances for expenses when the same shall be paid by the county wherein such stenographers or assistant stenographers are employed and when by the parties to such proceedings and repealing an act entitled 'An Act directing the appointment of official stenographers in the several civil courts of this Commonwealth authorizing the appointment of stenographers by examiners masters referees commissioners and auditors authorizing the appointment of assistant stenographers repealing 'An Act to authorize the appointment of stenographers in the several courts of this Commonwealth prescribing their duties and fixing their compensation' approved May fifteenth one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four repealing 'An Act to authorize the appointment of stenographers in the several courts of this Commonwealth prescribing their duties and fixing their compensation approved May eighth one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six and repealing 'An Act defining the duty of court stenographers in the several counties in this State' approved June tenth one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one' approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven but such repeal not to revive any law repealed by the said act of twenty-fourth of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven" which reads

"Section 2 The law judges of each of the several courts of oyer and terminer and general jail delivery and of the courts of quarter sessions of the peace are hereby authorized to employ the official stenographer or stenographers of the courts of common pleas of the particular county to report the proceedings of the said courts whenever in the opinion of the trial judge such services shall be necessary"
is hereby amended to read

Section 2 The law judges of each of the several courts of oyer and terminer and general jail delivery and of the courts of quarter sessions of the peace shall employ the official stenographer or stenographers of the courts of common pleas of the particular county to report the proceedings of the said court whenever requested so to do by any defendant or defendants or his her or their counsel before or during the trial of any case in any of said courts Provided further That in all cases tried in the several courts of oyer and terminer and general jail delivery the defendant or defendants shall be furnished with a copy of the notes of testimony taken at his her or their request which said notes shall be paid for by the county in which said case is tried.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the report of the Committee on Conference.

Mr. ROCKWELL. I would like to interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Abbott, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ABBOTT. I will.

Mr. ROCKWELL. I would like to ask the gentleman what provision this present report makes as to the county paying the costs of the stenographic reports of the notes of trial of the defendant?

Mr. ABBOTT. The same as the Senate amendment.

Mr. ROCKWELL. The same as the Senate amendment?

Mr. ABBOTT. It just amends the title to conform with the bill so that it would be constitutional.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, it seems to me that the amendment that the Senate put into this bill is certainly not in line with good economics in the trial of criminal cases. If you will notice in the last part of the bill, the very last part of section two, as I understand it, in every criminal case where the trial is had and the defendant demands a copy of the notes of the trial, that the county is obliged to furnish those notes at the expense of the county. Now it seems to me that we are getting away beyond what is necessary to protect the defendant's interests in cases in this Commonwealth. It may be all right that the county shall provide a proper care of the defendant and grant every possible safeguard to prevent them being convicted, but after they are convicted, then for the county to go to the expense of getting a stenographer to write the notes and furnish them to the defendant free of charge, or at the expense of the county, it seems to me that it is out of place. If the gentlemen of the House think it is proper that the county does this, then I have no objections. It seems to me, that this bill coming in at this time without a moment to consider it, that we ought to have a little time to look it over and I move that the further consideration of it be postponed for the present.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. J. R. K. Scott. Mr. Speaker, I sincerely hope that no such action will be taken upon this Conference Committee Report. This is a very important matter of legislation for the sake of the administration of justice in the Courts. The present law is that where an application is made to the Court by a defendant for the appointment of a stenographer, the court has the discretion whether or not such appointment shall be made. The only difference made in this bill is the fact that when application is made by the defendant for the appointment of a stenographer——

The SPEAKER. This motion is not debatable.

The question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER announced that the nays seem to have it. A division having been called for by Mr. R. J. Baldwin, and 51 gentlemen having voted in the affirmative and 78 in the negative, the motion was not agreed to.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I want to add my word in favor of this bill. We compel the county to furnish testimony in civil cases, in cases of dollars and cents. We legally have to do one of two things, either abolish this system altogether or else we ought to extend it to the Quarter Sessions Courts, where men's lives and liberty are tried by the State. I think it would be a mistake to vote against this report.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr Speaker, as I was saying when I was speaking out of order a few moments ago, the present law is that the court has the discretionary power to appoint a stenographer when a request for one is made. All this act does is to make it the right of a defendant to have a stenographer when a stenographer is asked for. You gentlemen of the House who are practicing law in the districts outside of the large cities, in the great number of your cases, I understand, the court, for its own benefit, to see that the administration of justice is properly provided for, has a stenographer appointed. As I understand it, from the members of the House, from the smaller cities and counties, you are surprised when you hear those of us from Philadelphia are compelled to try the most important cases, cases of manslaughter, arson, abortion, and other high crimes that are felonies, we are compelled to try them without having a stenographer. The result of that is what? The judges, or at least in our town, and I dare say it applies possibly to every large city in the State, are fast losing their hold upon the knowledge of criminal law. When we have a judge sent down from a city from the interior counties there is one thing that appeals very strongly to the practitioners of the Philadelphia bar, and that is, the county judges are far advanced from the city judges in the knowledge and administration of the fundamental principles of law—criminal law. If we have a stenographer in the city of Philadelphia where a defendant can demand his right for a stenographer, we can have more appeals taken and more decisions laid down in writing and we will have more decisions to which we can refer. It is a very important matter that this act of Assembly be passed. It has no change so far as the expense is concerned, because in the districts outside of the first to the fifth judicial districts, in nearly all of the important cases such as I have mentioned, they have a stenographer and the county pays the bill. This conference report should be adopted. This is not a case where a stenographer is appointed or a position created. It simply provides that when important cases are called for trial and the defendant asks his right to keep the record of the trial he gets the benefit of his exceptions and of the court's rulings. If he desires to make an appeal or the Commonwealth, if it is such a character of case, can have the benefit of that record, and the Commonwealth's right to appeal is protected. I desire to say that this is of great importance and I hope that the gentlemen of this House will sustain it.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I take issue with the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scott. This bill as originally introduced provided just as he says—that upon the request of the defendant the court should allow him and should be obliged to appoint him a stenographer. That bill was perfectly proper. In the country districts the court allows a stenographer now. We passed that bill allowing that very purpose. Then the bill goes to the Senate and they come back at us in lines 51, 52, 53, 54, 55 and 56 and inject another propostiion which says that in all these trials the defendant shall be furnished with a copy of the evidence at the county's expense. There is no provision under the present law for the county paying any such expense. Most of the stenographers of the court get from $10.00 to $20.00 a day. After a trial is over and the notes must be written out the stenographer gets at it and may spend from one to twenty days, according to the length of the trial, and puts in as much time as he wants to, and gets a per diem from the county for furnishing the defendant with a copy of the notes. This is an unreasonable hardship to be put upon the counties of this Commonwealth, and I trust this report will be defeated.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Rockwell, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROCKWELL. I will.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Does the gentleman not know that the copy that is supplied to the defendant is a carbon copy of the notes that must be filed and that must be paid for by the county? Does the gentleman not know that it is a carbon copy that is furnished, being done at the same time as the stenographer makes the copy for the court?

Mr. ROCKWELL. In reply I would state that ordinarily notes are not written out in long hand. This provision provides they must all be written out. That is one of the foolish provisions of it.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, this is the first time in this session that when the members of the House simply ask for the postponement of the bill for the purpose of an investigation of its provisions and to thoroughly understand it, with no threat upon the part of those who ask for it that they propose to defeat the bill, those members simply asking for the postponement for the purpose of being able to vote intelligently upon it, that the request is not granted. If the bill provides what the gentleman from Philadelphia says it does, and does not bring about the expense that the gentleman from Tioga says it does, then this House will undoubtedly vote for the bill, but I cannot understand why the gentlemen in favor of this bill are afraid to allow the members of the House to investigate and understand it. It would only detain the bill until the afternoon session of to-day. The only way now is to defeat it.

Mr. V. G. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I am sorry to be opposed to my colleague from Delaware, but I desire to add my voice in favor of this bill. The bill has been carefully considered and the purpose and object of it has been made clear. A man now may go into court in a civil suit not involving over ten dollars, a man who may be well able to pay for a copy of the testimony, and it is provided for him at the public expense, but when a poor creature goes before the Criminal Court very often assigned to his defence without pay, why should not he have the same privilege and a greater privilege to protect his life or his liberty under the same purposes of this bill, as to provide for a review either on a motion for a new trial or on a motion for judgment non obstante veridicto or by appeal? Now, it is true that there is a provision in this bill that a copy of the notes of testimony shall be furnished to the defendant, and why not? The original copy which, made at the expense of the county, is part of the records, and it devolves upon the counsel for the defence to get a special order and take a copy of it from the records or to send somebody to the records and take a copy of it. What good reason can there be why a copy shall not be furnished to the counsel for the defence in order that he may make a proper preparation for a review of a matter of so much importance as life or liberty? What can be gained or what could be gained by a postponement of the consideration of this bill? It has been fully explained, its merits are apparent to any man who has practiced in the Criminal Courts. It is true that in many country districts the reason that has brought about this change in the law does not exist, but there are many counties in this Commonwealth where the reason does exist, and if there is any case that shouuld appeal to the better-minded legislator it is the enactment of such legislation as will thoroughly and decently, I might add, protect the men in a trial involving his life and liberty, and, therefore, I very heartily join in the endorsement of this bill and ask the vote of every member of the House in its support.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, in the furtherance of this bill, and in answer to the gentleman from Delaware, I think that his position in asking to have this bill defeated merely because he has not had time to consider it is without merit. Bills are going through here continually, and we are disposing of bills at a rapid rate. This bill has been before the House, has been before the committee, has been on the floor of the House, and bfore the Conference committee. It has been upon the file folio, and we are familiar with the provisions of this bill and cannot take any more time to read this act any more thoroughly. I take it that so far as the argument of the gentleman from Delaware is concerned that we should not give it consideration. So far as the argument offered by the gentleman from Tioga is concerned, if we reflect for one moment on what he says regarding the extra expense for the copy of the notes, when I say a copy of the notes I do not refer to the notes that have been taken by the court and furnished to the court, because those notes have to be transcribed and paid for by the county under the present act, but I speak of the notes which are merely a duplicate or a carbon copy of the original notes filed of record, which would, of course, be of no more expense, and even if so, we ought to pay the expense instead of sacrificing the great protection of personal liberty, because that is what this bill provides for. In this Commonwealth we desire to have our judges the leaders of all. We desire to have them the peers of any of the judges of this land. You members who have practiced law in Pennsylvania know that the reports of our appellant courts are held equal to any courts in this Union, and it is because our judges in the past have been strong in the fundamental principles of law. In the days of Shiras Wood and men of that character in Philadelphia, the criminal law was administered with a master hand before the bar, and on the bench, and behind the bar. But they have deterioated, and why? Because we are not keeping the judges up to the standard established by our appellant courts, and we cannot go to them on very grave questions that strike the fundamental principle of liberty that have been established, we cannot establish and maintain those principles of common law or statutory law because we have not the means of appealing our cases to the higher courts because of the poverty of the defendant. I know in an adjoining county of Bucks—and the gentleman from that county will know the case—where a defendant was charged with arson and convicted and sentenced to prison and there was not one note of testimony taken. The attorney took the case to the appellant court. An ex-judge of that county and an ex-district attorney took that appeal and protested the fact that they were not furnished with any menas of bringing up this record before them, and the appellate court set aside the verdict. Mr. Speaker, this bill that is before you is the most important legislation that we will pass upon. It is not a protection of property, but it is a protection of life and liberty, and I take it, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, that the gentleman from Delaware treats this bill lightly when he asks that we defeat it because he has not, perchance, spent half an hour to read it, and I take it that the gentleman from Tioga speaks without thought when he asks us to defeat this bill because of the additional expense to his county. I take it that we are too broad, too big, we love the sense of liberty in this Commonwealth too much for us to deprive the poor man of his right to appeal merely because he has not the means to pay for the protection of his liberty.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, in listening to the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, we would almost be able to conceive ourselves listening to an argument upon the increase of the judges' salary or some of the other judges' measures that have been before this House. It strikes me from several of the bills that have been presented to this House by the gentlemen from Philadelphia who are general practitioners at the bar of that city, that they principally represent defendants and that this legislation is all in the line, you might say, of their line of business, helping to get these defendants in better shape and the evidence in better shape at the expense of the county. I had no objection to this bill as it came from the committee. We passed it with scarcely a vote against it. It goes to the Senate and comes back with vicious amendment. What did we do? Did we swallow it? Why the very gentleman who presents this report said, "We won't accept it." Practically no time at all was given to consider it. I say that the last five lines in the bill as amended are simply to put more expense upon the county and helping the attorneys to get these matters at the expense of the county. If the section provided simply that carbon copies were to be furnished where notes are written I would have no objection. It says that in every case tried notes of testimony shall be delivered to the defendant. It does not say "may," it says shall. If the last section was changed I would not have any objection to the bill.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, would it be in order to again make a motion to postpone, the previous motion having been defeated?

The SPEAKER. The motion is not in order.

The question recurring,

Will the House agree to the report of the Committee on Conference?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

Mr. SCHULTZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call the attention of the House to House Bill 636, that Mr. Schofield offered a motion this morning to have recommitted. The author of the bill was not in the House at the time, and I do not think it was fair to have that bill recommitted at this time. He should have handed that bill to one of the members of the Mines and Mining Committee. I do not think that we should have any small tricks of that kind pulled off here.

The SPEAKER. There is nothing before the House. The gentleman can make a motion to have the vote reconsidered.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE, HOUSE BILL NO. 636.

Mr. SCHULTZ. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 636, entitled:

An Act to protect the lives aid limbs of miners from the dangers resulting from incompetent miners working in the bituminous coal mines of this Commonwealth and to provide for the examination of persons seeking employment as miners in the bituminous region and to prevent the employment of incompetent persons as miners in bituminous coal mines and providing penalties for a violation of the same was recommitted to the Committee on Corporations, be reconsidered.

Mr. FEENEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SCHULTZ. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I would like to say to the gentlemen of the House that the Mines and Mining Committee has been very fair to the miners and operators and I do not see why this bill should be recommitted at this time. The operators had a hearing and we were fair with them, and I do not think this bill should be recommitted. It was a very small trick for Mr. Schofield to play to have the bill recommitted at this time.

Mr. SCHOFIELD. Mr. Speaker, I just desire to state my position in this matter. The gentleman from Northumberland, Mr. Schultz, is mistaken when he says that I made the motion quietly or in the absence of the author of the bill. Mr. Feeney was in the House and tells me he was, and I made the motion in stenatorian tones and the gentleman should have heard it.

Mr. SCHULTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Warren, Mr. Schofield, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCHOFIELD. Yes.

Mr. SCHULTZ. I would like to ask the gentleman if he knew anything about what was done with the bill in committee.

Mr. SCHOFIELD. I do not, but I understand it was a bad bill.

Mr. SCHULTZ. Did you not say that you knew nothing about the provisions of the bill?

Mr. SCHOFIELD. I know about the bill in a general way.

The question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Mr. CONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire at this time to call House Bill No. 285, file folio 1289 on page 44 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading postponed for the present.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 285, entitled:

An Act to regulate the practice of neuropathy in the State of Pennsylvania to provide for the establishment of a State board of neuropathic examiners to define the powers and duties of said board of neuropathic examiners to provide for the examining and licensing of neuropaths in this State and to provide penalties for the violation of this Act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. CONNELL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I would like to say a word in explanation of this bill. This bill provides for the regulation of the science of neuropathy. I would like to say to the gentlemen of the House that neuropathy is a science for the treatment of diseases through the manipulation or the mechanical manipulation of the nerves, where by the organs of the body and nerve cells are controlled. I would say to those familiar with osteopathy that neuropathy is a science somewhat similar to it, but it is quite different in its effect, and I would like to say that I have become sponsor for this bill and introduced it out of the gratitude of my heart to this science and the benefits that I have had personally from this treatment and my family and friends, and the bill is intended to further this great science of neuropathy. This bill does not cost the state one dollar. It is only a bill which asks for fair play. It provides for a board of examiners and a course of study for everyone who studies the subject of neuropathy and provides such a course that it makes the college of neuropathy equal to any medical college in the State of Pennsylvania. It provides that a man must be qualified to study and come before the State to practice this science. The bill is simply for fair play and does not cost the State one single dollar and I hope the House will pass the bill.

The question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask the unanimous consent of the House to call up at this time House Bill No. 480, file folio 2737 on page 48 of to-day calendar, bills on second reading. This is an unusual request, but I wish to explain my reason for making it. This bill was reached in order of second reading a week ago last Thursday. I was absent at the time, but I had reason to believe that my friend from Susquehanna, Mr. E. E. Jones, had called the bill up, and he thought so too. The bill appeared on third reading calendar on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. The printer had made an error in putting it on the third reading calendar because the bill really had not been called up, and I, therefore, ask unanimous consent of the House to consider it at this time.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objections.

BILL ON SECOND READING.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in committee of he whole, being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 480, entitled:

An Act making valid certain bonds issued by municipal corporations and the indebtedness represented by such bonds issued and created in pursuance of an Act entitled "An Act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities to provide for the redemption of the same and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof" approved twentieth April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four and the Acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in all cases where the indebtedness of any county city borough township school district or other incorporated district or municipality has been increased and bonds issued representing such indebtedness in pursuance of an Act entitled "An Act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities to provide for the redemption of the same and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof" approved twentieth April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto where the assent of the electors of such district or municipality was had to such increase of indebtedness at an election and the vote at such election has been returned to the court and counted the said indebtedness is hereby declared to be valid and shall be held and adjudged to be valid and sufficient in law and in all cases such increase of indebtness and the bonds or other obligations issued to increase of indebtedness be and the same are hereby declared to be valid binding and lawful to all intents and purposes notwithstanding any defect or informality in the ordinance purporting to signify the desire of the corporate authorities of such county city borough township school district municipality or incorporated district for such increase of indebtedness and notwithstanding any defect or informality in the time or manner of calling such election and notwithstanding any defect or informality in the manner of giving notice of such election and notwithstanding any defect or informality in the form of the ballot or in the mode of conducting such election or in the manner of making return of the votes cast at such election

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read as follows:

Amend section one, line 19, insert after the words "issued of" the words "evidence such."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The title was read and agreed to as follows:

An Act making valid certain bonds issued by municipal corporations and the indebtedness represented by such bonds issued and created in pursuance of an Act entitled 'An Act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities to provide for the redemption of the same and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof' approved twentieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four and the Acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto

And said bill having been read at length the second time, considered and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading,

BILL POSTPONED.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 423 (Senate No. 25), entitled:

An Act amending sections three eight and fourteen of "An Act to provide for licensing and regulating employment agencies in cities of the first and second class in this Commonwealth and providing penalties for the violation thereof" approved the twenty-fifth day of April Anno Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and seven

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, I do not know that I have any objection to this bill, but a gentleman residing in my district, who is engaged in business in the city, asked me some little time ago to look out for a bill of this kind. I did not discover this bill on the calendar until last night, when I sent him a telegram. I do not know that he will have any objection to it, but he may have some amendment to offer which will not be objectionable to the gentleman who has introduced the bill, and as this bill is on third reading, and a Senate Bill, a few days will not prejudice the bill, and I therefore move that the further consideration of it be postponed for the present.

Mr. KEISTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. KEISTER in the Chair.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 424 (Senate No. 303), entitled:

An Act in relation to the appointment and salaries of the clerks of the court or courts of common pleas in counties containing a population of not less than seven hundred and fifty thousand nor more than one million two hundred thousand

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question.

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. MANNION. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Mannion.

Mr. MANNION. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent from the House to offer a resolution at this time.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the resolution for the information of the House.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

RESOLUTION.

RELATIVE TO APPOINTMENT OF COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE COAL MINING CONDITIONS IN EUROPE.

Whereas, That the State of Pennsylvania is the oldest in coal production of any of the coal producing states in the American nation and prides herself on her laws for the protection of human life underground, which has been proved lax and inefficient in many instances involving great loss of life as was the case in the Irwin shaft and many other disasters, including the late tragedy at the Pancoast mine near Throp, Pa., and

Whereas, Statistics show that in Belgium, France, England and other European countries, their coal is mined under much greater disadvantages, including deeper shafts thinner veins of coal, more gas and older workings, the loss of life is not so great and

Whereas, An applicant for the position of mine or assistant mine boss is compelled by law to undergo an examination and secure a state certificate ere he can be employed in such positions under the law, whilst his superior the general manager or superintendent who directs the management of the mine is not obliged to submit to an examination of any kind is one of those omissions of the law for which a thinking man cannot offer any adequate reason, and inasmuch as the position of mine inspector in many instances is regarded by thinking men as a sort of a political asset that might be more properly termed a Bureau of Inquest, rather than a Bureau of Mines, and

Whereas, It is apparent to thoughtful men that mining laws are sadly out of gear and need revision and amendment such as will secure a greater degree of safety to the man who toils underground.

Therefore, be it Resolved, (The Senate concurring) That his Excellency, the Governor, be hereby authorized to name and appoint a Commission consisting of five members who are known as practical coal men of well-known reputation to inquire into the laws relating to coal mining in England, France and Belgium, and after fair comparisons have been made as to the laws and methods in vogue there and here to recommend such needed legislation as in their judgment they may deem wise and expedient and that said contemplated members of such commission shall in no way be interested or affiliated in anyway with coal producing companies.

And that for and in consideration of the services to be rendered by said Commission the sum of six thousand dollars ($6,000) is herewith appropriated, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

Which was referred to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 432 (Senate No. 222), entitled:

An Act authorizing road supervisors in townships of the second class to aid in the construction of sidewalks along public highways through towns and villages in said townships

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Hobbs.

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, it appears to me that this bill might create a hardship if it authorizes the use of ten per cent. of the gross taxation of a township for the construction of side walks in roads in villages. In many of the large townships ten per cent. of the taxes for road purposes would be a large amount to use for that object. Therefore, I think it is best to defeat this bill and let it go as it is now. The supervisors and the road commissioners have their own discretion in improving the roads or sidewalks, and, therefore, I think it is our duty to vote down this bill.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The mapority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 442 (Senate No. 146); as follows:

A supplement to an act entitled "An Act authorizing the councils of incorporated boroughs to require the subgrading paving curbing and macadamizing of streets or thoroughfares or parts thereof and assess the cost of the same on the owners of property abutting thereon provided four-fifths of said owners petition councils for same and providing for the collection of the cost of same approved twentieth day of April Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and thirty-two) providing that if the petition for said improvement has been verified by the affidavit of one or more of the petitioners notice may be given of the passage of the ordinance requiring said improvement and allowing an appeal therefrom by any person interested to any Court of Common Please of the county and if such appeal is dismissed or no such appeal is taken then all parties interested shall be estopped from denying that said petition was signed by the requisite number of owners representing the requisite number of feet fronting on the street to be improved

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That after the passage or approval of any ordinance for improving any street or part thereof pursuant of the act entitled "An Act authorizing the councils of incorporated boroughs to require the subgrading paving curbing and macadamizing of streets or thoroughfares or parts thereof and assess cost of the same on the owners of property abutting thereon provided four-fifths of said owners petition councils for same and providing for the collection of the costs of the same" approved the twentieth day of April one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and thirty-two) if the petition for said improvement has been verified by the affidavit of one or more of the petitioners notice may be given within ten days thereafter by hand-bills posted in conspicuous places along the line of the proposed improvement which notice shall state the fact of the passage or approval of the ordinance the date of the passage or approval that the petition for the improvement was signed by four-fifths of the owners of property representing not less than four-fifths in number of feet of the property fronting or abutting on said street or thoroughfare on the part thereof proposed to be paved and that any person interested and denying the fact that said petition was so signed may appeal to any Court of Common Pleas of the proper county within sixty days from the passage or approval of said ordinance and any person interested may within sixty days from the passage or approval of said ordinance present a petition to any Court of Common Pleas of the proper county setting forth the facts whereupon the said court shall inquire and determine whether said improvement was petitioned for by the requisite four-fifths majority and if said court shall find that it was not so petitioned for shall quash said ordinance but if said court shall find that it was so petitioned for it shall approve the ordinance If no appeal shall be taken as aforesaid or if the court on appeal shall approve the ordinance the borough authorities may proceed with the improvement and thereafter all parties interested shall be estopped from denying the fact that said petition was signed by the requisite four-fifths majority of property owners as required by said act

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is quested.

BILL POSTPONED.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 452, entitled:

An act providing for the adjustment and payment of the claim of John E. Joos for publishing the Mercantile Appraiser's list of State taxes in Allegheny county for the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill upon which the members here will very naturally desire some information and explanation and I find that I have mislaid the brief which Mr. Joos' attorney furnished me, containing the history of the matter, and in order to enable me to get that and give any explanation which any membmer of the House might desire on the subject, I would like to postpone this bill. Mr. Stein says he has a copy of the brief, but I move that the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present so that I may get the brief and give any gentleman any explanation he may desire.

Mr. WILLIAM CONNER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 453, entitled:

An act to amend the first section of an act approved the twenty-fifth day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and seven entitled "An Act regulating the compensation of sheriffs for boarding prisoners confined in the county jail in the counties of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania which do not exceed fifty thousand population" by extending the provisions of the act to those having a population not exceeding sixty thousand and requiring the approval solely of the courts of quarter sessions

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. KERN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the author of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Von Tacky, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr VON TACKY. I will.

Mr. KERN. I would like to know what is the present salary of the clerks.

Mr. VON TACKY. Fourteen hundred dollars, and the reason for the increase is this: In 1895, when the banking department was organized there were three clerks appointed. Since then two more have been added, of which one is the chief clerk. In 1895 there were under the supervision of the banking department 83 banks. To-day we have 152, or an increase of 83 per cent. We had 88 trust companies, and to-day we have 307, or an increase of 249 per cent. There were 1135 building and loan associations and there are to-day 1552, or an increase of 36 per cent.

Mr. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Crawford Mr. Von Tacky, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. VON TACKY. I will.

Mr. SHAFFER. Do I understand that this bill calls for five clerks or four?

Mr. VON TACKY. It calls for four clerks.

The question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time considered and agreed to.

On the question.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows viz:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 100.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, April 20, 1911.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 100, entitled:

An Act amending the first section of an act approved the fourteenth day of May Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled "An Act to exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes and places of religious worship places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit and institutions of purely public charity" as amended by the first section of an act approved the twenty-ninth day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one entitled "An Act to amend section one of an act approved May the fourteenth one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled 'An Act to exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes and places of religious worship places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit and institutions of purely public charity'" and as amended by section one of an act approved the twenty-fourth day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and nine entitled "An Act to amend the act of the fourteenth day of May Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and fifty-eight) entitled 'An Act to exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes and places of religious worship places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit and institutions of purely public charity' so that it shall apply to hospitals universities colleges seminaries acadamies associations and institutions of learning benevolence and charity where the entire revenue is applied to the support of and to increase the efficiency and improvement thereof" by exempting any building owned by any religious society used exclusively as a parsonage.

The purpose of this bill has my approval, and were it possible under the Constitution to exempt parsonages from taxation, I should unhesitatingly approve it. The Supreme Court has held that "a parsonage cannot be considered as an actual place of religious worship," within the meaning of article 9, section 1, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, and consequently the Legislature is without power to exempt such parsonages from taxation.

For this reason I am reluctantly compelled to withhold my approval from the bill.

(Signed) JOHN K. TENER.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. ABBOTT. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Abbott.

Mr. ABBOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to have my reasons for voting aye on this bill recorded, which I submit in writing.

The SPEAKER. It will be noted in the Journal.

REASONS FOR VOTING.

As the electors of this district have expressed their desire, I vote accordingly.

EDWIN M. ABBOTT.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Alter.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Bill No. 425, entitled:

An act to prevent deception in the sale of paint putty turpentine and linseed oil or any substitute therefor and providing penalties for the violation thereof from page one of to-day's calendar, reconsidered this afternoon and placed on the postponed list for the present, bills on final passage.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, I have never before taken up the time of this House by asking it to vote a second time upon a bill of mine, and I only made or have made this motion to reconsider in order that this bill might come up the second time because it seemed to me that out of fairness to the Master Painters' Association of Pennsylvania, at whose instance the bill was introduced, as well as out of consideration to the consumers generally who are interested in the bill, that it ought not to be finally disposed of by the House without some explanation on my part.

When it was called up this morning, no remarks being made in opposition to the bill and assuming that there was no extended objection to it, I made no explanation of the bill, which I desire to do now in order that the House may vote on the bill after that explanation and act upon it in their wisdom as they may see fit.

Mr. Speaker, this bill was introduced for the purpose of protecting the consumer of paint. It is probably unnecessary to state to any gentleman who has given the matter any investigation that there are frauds, and gross frauds, perpetrated in the sale of paint and that there are frauds particularly in the sale of ready mixed paints, owing to the mechanical devices which now take the place of the old paint mixture, by reason of which the greater part of paint that is sold is ready mixed paint, and this becomes a very important item. The purpose of the bill is to enable the consumer when he purchases a can of paint to know what he is buying. The purpose is to have him know whether he is buying white lead and linseed oil or whether he is buying turpentine and some substitute for white lead which is greatly inferior in value. This is not a new thought to put the consumer in this way. In a number of States of the Union they have bills for this purpose, more or less resembling the bill before this House now. I know there has been a very strong objection to this bill on the part of some of the paint manufacturers of this State. I hold in my hand a report from the government agricultural experimental station at Fargo, North Dakota, which has a bulletin upon the subject of paints. In that State they have laws for the protection of the public from these frauds. It seems that it had been argued there that the fraud complaints were mostly of the manufacturers of Western paints and that paints manufactured in the East were comparatively free from these frauds. This report is prefaced by an explanation by E. F. Ladd and G. A. Abbott, efficient chemists in charge of the investigation of paint at that experiment station. I desire to read just about a dozen lines from that report showing the attitude of eastern paint manufacturers on this question and for the purpose of throwing some light on the persistent opposition on the part of the manufacturer. It is as follows:

"The time has come when the people are demanding that they have truthful information with regard to what each paint is composed of, and they are willing to pay for what they receive. This, we believe, is as true for the Eastern consumer as for the Western consumer, who has become more familiar with the proposition of paint. No honest manufacturer has anything to fear from putting a label upon his paint; and, unless the manufacturer is misled, if he opposes paint legislation requiring the percentage composition to be shown, you may rest assured that he has something somewhere to cover up which he does not care to have the general public know about.

"The argument which has so often been put forth that the label formula is giving away secrets is not true, for there is not a large paint manufacturer in the country who does not already know the composition of his competitors' paint and the consuming public are fast becoming familiar with the ingredients used in the manufacture of paint and the difference between adulterants, cheapeners and paint ingredients."

In this bulletin, at least, there are a large number of analyses of ready mixed paints. In some of them the adulterants are one hundred per cent.; in some of them the percentage of water in what is called the liquid part of the paint is thirty-six per cent. that is substituted for linseed oil which the purchaser pays for. There has been some expression in this House that this bill is identical on the same subject and on a bill that was in the House two years ago and defeated. There is this distinction, and this is my distinction: The bill which was in the House two years ago provided that the manufacturer must place on each can a formula showing exactly the name and the percentage of each ingredient, and on this account it was opposed by the paint manufacturers. They claimed it would disclose the ingredients they use, which was a great secret; that it would make public the formula which they had worked out in generations of investigations. This bill does not provide for the giving away of any secrets which any manufacturer may possess. This bill carefully guards against any such requirements. This is what this bill provided: The label shall give the name and the percentage only of the substantial ingredients, the same as would be disclosed by an ordinary chemical analysis thereof. That cannot reveal anything which the manufacturer could consider a secret. Any manufacturer could tell by having the paint analyzed what the formula was. The manufacturers can tell you that there are some ingredients and some secrets of their mixtures that cannot be detected by the chemists and that would be the only secret, because that which can be discovered by a chemist cannot be considered as secret. This bill provides that it shall put on only the name and ingredients that can be disclosed by any ordinary chemical analysis; further, it provides that the Agricultural Department, as far as the provisions of this law permit it, that the farmer and the agricultural boroughs shall be protected and they are anxious for the protection of the public. It provides that agents may go into any store or any manufacturer's place for the purpose of detecting anything that might be fraudulent. There is nothing in this saying whether or not the agent shall require the disclosure of any paint that is manufactured which has any formula or great secret, excepting so far as, if this bill is enacted, it may be easily discovered by an ordinary technical analysis by which the product thereof may be discovered. Is there anything in this bill which would require a man to give up any secret? That which I can take to a chemist and by paying twenty-five dollars get an analysis and find out what the ingredients are is not a secret that cannot be detected or that would be affected by the enactment of this bill. The only purpose is to protect the small consumer who buys ready mixed paint to paint his house or barn and to give him the same information which the larger purchaser has when he buys paint for himself by taking a chemist and analyzing it. This is a plain question between the purchaser and the consumer. This is a case where, it seems to me, the consumer is entitled to this protection, which I hope this House will give him.

Mr. DEARDEN. Mr. Speaker, I share in what I may define to be the universal sentiment of this House—that is a sentiment of very high respect for anything that emanates from the distinguished member from Allegheny county, Mr. Alter (Applause). I have listened with great interest to what the gentleman has said, as much as I was able to do in view of what he has said upon this bill. He has, I admit, partially helped me out of what was a very serious dilemma to me in regard to some of its features. I am not, however, altogether convinced that his reasons are sufficiently conclusive to warrant such consideration of the measure at the hands of this House as will eventually result in its passage. I have no interest in this bill in itself nor in the paint business. I admit that I have had very strong pressure brought to bear upon me by parties engaged in that trade, who asked me to oppose this bill, and they have given reasons why that opposition is sought, notwithstanding the disclaimer and the only explanation the gentleman has given us in regard to the exposure of the so-called secrets which they wish kept shut tight. They were so emphatic in their insistence upon the proposition that they declared that if this bill should become a law it would work a very serious loss to them, that I am convinced that perhaps they are more than half right.

The House will readily understand that men who have been in this business upon a large scale for a great many years and have built up a great interest in this line naturally jealously guard that interest. I understand that some of them have made large sums of money through their opposition to the exposure of these so-called trade secrets. They don't wish, naturally, to disclose them and publish them to the world. They claim that it is paramount to vested property rights, coming to them in some cases by inheritance, in other cases by purchase, and in all cases by having the protection which the consumer has given to them up to this time. I understand, also, that a bill very similar to this has been introduced in nearly all the States or at least in a very large number of the States of this Union in prior years, and I am also informed that in nearly all such cases these bills have almost uniformly been consigned, so to speak, to the waste basket as being unworthy of serious consideration. I don't know as to the merits of the Master Painters' argument in wishing to enact this proposition into law. I have not been able to find out, even by the lucid explanation of our good friend from Allegheny county, as to just what they wish to do or why they should be granted the right to do this. However, I wish to say at this time, Mr. Speaker, that we should recognize the fact that there are such things in trade as secrets that are entitled to protection of the law, and this would seem to be one of those times and one of those cases. I did not want to oppose this bill; I would rather do the other thing, but I feel that I am not warranted in voting for it and I feel that I have to oppose this bill, and I do so rather reluctantly.

And said bill having been read at length the third time and agreed to,

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 216, file folio 2979, page 44 of to-night's calendar, bills on third reading postponed for the present.

Agreeably,

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

The House resumed the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 216, as follows:

An Act to amend sections one two and three of an act entitled "An Act creating the Department of State Police providing for the appointment of a Superintendent thereof together with officers and men who shall constitute the force defining their powers and duties and making an appropriation for the expenses connected therewith" approved the second day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and five fixing the salaries of the Superintendent and employes of the Department of State Police also the salaries of the officers and men of the State Police Force

Section 3 The foregoing amendments shall become effective and go into operation on the first day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House I desire to say with reference to this bill, that at the time it was up for reconsideration it was suggested that it would be amended. It has been amended and I have submitted it to a number of gentlemen and my understanding is that it is now in satisfactory shape, and I ask the gentlemen of the House to give their support to this bill.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, as Mr. Robinson said, when this bill was placed back on the calendar two weeks ago it was to be amended, and as I understood it, the so-called objectionable features of the bill should be removed. We find the bill back again pretty much the same as it was when referred to the Committee for amendment. The only difference there is in the bill as it is now and as it was when it fell some three weeks ago is that the superintendent's salary shall not be increased. At that time it asked that the salary be increased two thousand dollars, while the assistant superintendent's salary was to be increased one thousand dollars. Now the difference between these two bills is that the superintendent's salary shall not be increased and the assistant superintendent's salary shall be increased five hundred dollars, otherwise the bill is just as it was when it fell. No difference.

Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robinson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROBINSON. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman tell me why the members of the force when discharged or when they quit the service with a good record, why twenty-eight dollars are deducted from their pay?

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker. While it may or may not be germane to this special bill that is before the House, that question was asked of me and I made inquiry under the terms of enlistment as it has existed heretofore, and one of the purposes of this act is to correct that by making the term two years. Under the terms of the enlistment, as it was before, it was not possible to hold the men for a period of two years if they did not wish to remain, and in consequence it was under a written agreement, at the time of the enlistment it was stipulated that twenty-eight dollars should be held back from the pay in the event that they did not serve out the term of the enlistment. That twenty-eight dollars, it is explained to me, was for the purpose of coverning any claim that might be made for State property after the enlistment; if when he left the service he was short any amount of State property it was deducted from this amount, and the balance was turned into the Treasury of the Commonwealth.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, another question to the gentleman. Can you explain to me why when a trooper was sent out on special work, why forty cents a day was deducted from his pay.

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker. As I understand it, that forty cents a day is deducted for lodging. Under the terms there is no provision made for the lodging, nor for the mess of the trooper, and in order to meet that it is necessary to make an assessment upon the troopers in order to pay for their lodging, and one of the purposes of this bill is to increase the pay in order that that may be covered.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman tell me whether this twenty-eight dollars and this forty cents a day which are deducted, can he show us a record where that has been paid back into the State Treasury?

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I have not that record here, of course, but I am informed by the head of the department that that money has been paid over, and I take it for granted that it has been, as I would take the word of any other gentleman.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, that is all from the gentleman; thank you.

Now, gentlemen, it seems to me that it is not so much a case of the State policeman needing an increase in salary, as it is that they should draw that amount which the State thinks it is paying them now. I know it to be a fact—I can give you the names of the men who with a good, clean record when they quit the service had twenty-eight dollars taken from their pay. I also know that men have been fined for breaking or violating some of the discipline of the department, and I have it from excellent authority that the fine and the twenty-eight dollars taken from them very often puts them in such a position that collections had to be lifted to get them out of town. It seems to me that it is not so much an increase that the troopers desire as it is better conditions. For instance, here is a circular that was left on our desks and the author of it points out the trouble with the department he says is that they have lost seventy-three good men in 1909 and eighty-three in 1910. The inference he tries to draw is that the reason they lost so many good men is because of the pay; the compensation is not sufficient to hold them. Now, I chance to know a good many of these men that they have lost, and I do know and can prove, that they have not left a sixty dollar a month job for a job that pays more than sixty dollars, and that they have gone to work and taken jobs at less than sixty dollars. I also know that others have left the police department and are not working at all. I can point out some to you that have not worked since they left the Department of State Police, and that is——

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAURER. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether it is not a fact that in one instance a lieutenant of nineteen men left the service of the department and were taken into the employ of a corporation because the pay of the lieutenant was increased from one hundred to one hundred and fifty dollars a month and the pay of the troopers was increased very much in excess of what the State pays? Is not that true?

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, I cannot say that it is. I do not know.

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, then can the gentleman say it is not?

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, certainly not.

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, let me ask the gentleman one other question. Is it not a fact that it requires four months of the State's money in order to qualify these men so as to become efficient for the force, and train them in horsemanship, and train them in the manual of arms—

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, I am glad you draw that point—

Mr. ROBINSON. ——to train them in the manual of arms and get them in condition so that they may be efficient, and isn't it a fact that after they have reached this stage the efficiency in these matters has been the result of larger pay being offered them?

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, now, gentlemen, there is no doubt that some men—I know at least one—who I believe has bettered his conditions by quitting the department, but I only know of one, and I am not so sure that he is any better off financially since he is in the detective business, private detective agency. What his income is I am not prepared to say. However, I know that the State policemen have quit not so much on account of the pay, but on account of the conditions in the department. I know that when the Wilkes-Barre barracks burned that the State—I was told—had them buildings insured, and the troopers were not reimbursed for their loss, and that created considerable bad feeling among them. And so I might show to you other reasons why the troopers leave the department. For instance, one of them living in Philadelphia—I can give you his name and address—had his arm broke. He was asked to do duty with a broken arm, to answer telephone calls and so on. The pain was so great that he became delirious, and he asked for leave of absence to go home and after suffering for many weeks he finally quit the department. He could not stand the pressure. Now, gentlemen, the question of sixty dollars a month—I want to point this out to you. The average skilled mechanic in Pennsylvania does not average that pay in the year. Seven hundred and twenty dollars a year is more than the average skilled mechanic earns. You take the bricklayer. Seven hundred and twenty dollars a year is more than the average skilled mechanic earns. That is correct. The bricklayer if he makes eight months' time in a year, considers it a prosperous year. The plumbers in my own trade, if we average nine months a year, we consider it a very prosperous year. Take the carpenter, whose average wage is only two dollars and fifty cents a day in this State, the average wage, and they make less than nine months time in a year, and so on down the line. And now you have pointed out to us that the troopers cannot get along on seven hundred and twenty dollars a year. They have no lost time. There are no panics to bother them; no mills closing down; no short time. They are sure of that seven hundred and twenty dollars every year they are in the service; no question about them getting that. The friends of the department say, see the risk they run; see the risk of losing their lives. It is not to be compared to the risk of the workers in the mills and factories, and workshops and building trades. Just look at the risk we run for less money than they. Take the structural iron worker. Take those in the building trades, those in the great iron mills, and so on; look at your miners, the risk they run, as they go down in the bowels of the earth for a wage considerably less than sixty dollars a month the year round.

I tell you gentlemen there is no reason at all why this bill should pass.

I would like to ask the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robinson, just one more question. Mr. Robinson, does the law controlling the department claim or hold that men to serve in this department must be United States citizens?

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I am not sure as to that. Looking at the bill I see on page 5 it says "the applicant must be a citizen of the United States, of sound constitution, able to write, of good moral character and between the ages of twenty-one and forty years."

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, that is all.

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, just in this connection while I am on my feet, I would like to ask one othes question. I would like to ask the gentleman whether the name of the detective to whom he referred was not Hallisy?

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen, it is not fair to ask that question.

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, and I would ask whether another one of the troopers who had left and did not better his condition is not now the Chief of Police of Jenkintown.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, I am informed not.

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. Speaker, I am informed the other way.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, Collier's Weekly is not a labor paper. No one will charge it with being a trade union paper owned by the organized workers of this country. Two weeks ago they published an article furnished to them by one of their special correspondents showing that in Westmoreland county troopers had riddled the Stars and Stripes full of bullet holes in their attempt to shoot off the flag pole in the miners' camp. I want to point out to you that I am not surprised at such action on the part of some of these troopers. I want to say to you that there are men serving in this department who are not American citizens, who are not naturalized citizens. One of them is a sergeant, an officer, Sergeant Primm. He was shot at Shenandoah a year ago and died at Fountain Springs Hospital, and was not a citizen of this country; and I know it from very good authority that there are others in the State police force that are not citizens. I could not say it is true, but I have it from such good authority that I cannot help believing it. But I do know that Primm was not. Therefore, it is little wonder that we read stories such as printed in Collier's Weekly. Gentlemen, before you increase any part of these department's salaries, I would recommend that we investigate the department further. I hope that this bill will be voted down. I have not asked much of this House since I have been here, but I ask you to vote this bill down. You did so three weeks ago and I only hope that you will do so to-night. As I said then, the class I represent don't want it. There is no excuse for it. If the department was only here to apprehend real criminals, to run down the real criminals, I am the last man to offer one word of protest against it. I am from an old family of Americans myself. My ancestry dates back in Pennsylvania over two hundred years, and not one of my ancestry, so far as we can trace them, was ever brought up before a court of justice for violating any of the laws of our Commonwealth. Part of our religion has been fear of the Lord and obeying the laws of the land. I have always lived up to the laws of the land. This constabulary, as constituted at the present time, is not upholding the laws of the land, as I always understood it; it is not my ideal at all. It is the beginning of a military despotism, and I can see more danger in it. The two years term that they must enlist is one of the dangerous features. Gentlemen, come, I beseech you, I am in earnest, never more in earnest in my life. I hope you will vote this bill down as you did before.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House, when this bill was before the House some time ago I gave reasons in opposition to it, and I will therefore be very brief to-night. You will recall that when this bill was up for discussion a few weeks ago I think the understanding of every member of this House was that the only increase in salary was to be the increase of salary to the private. As has been said by the speaker who preceded me the only real stripping down has been the salary of the superintendent of the department and the deputy superintendent instead of being three thousand dollars was raised to two thousand five hundred; officers and all the officers of the line have also been raised. I find on my desk, and I assume on the desk of every member of the House there has been left a little leaflet comparing the salary paid the State Constabulary with the salaries paid the police officers in the city of Philadelphia. I want to say to you that the merit of this bill before you now should stand upon better ground than comparison with the police officers in Philadelphia. When you talk about the police officers in Philadelphia you come very close home to me, for my father was an officer there, and he was more than a member of the constabulary in that he maintained a home and raised a family on a wage of ninety dollars a month. If you gentlemen think in your wisdom that the State Constabulary should be raised in salary then raise it. Every man in this House acts from his own honest motives. You may have your way of thinking, and I will have mine, and we will vote absolutely conscientious in our action; but if you are going to base your action here to-night on any comparison, remember that the members of the State Constabulary are unmarried men, not attached to such an institution as a home, not attached to any such an institution as a family; that they are living in a barracks in which their living expenses are twenty dollars a month. I argue to you men as far as the salary of the State Constabulary is concerned, and as far as the real work they do is concerned, they are paid enough. I want to ask you to bear that in mind, as I said I would be brief, because you will remember what I had to say on this bill when it was up some few weeks ago.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, just one word as to this bill. It seems to me that the question before the House is a very simple question upon which there is not a great deal of ground for difference of opinion when the exact question before the House is looked at. My friend, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Roney, seems to understand that the members of the State Constabulary must be unmarried men or at least that they are all unmarried men. The bill does not provide that they must be unmarried men, and I am informed that many are married men. I have no doubt that the ones who are not married hope to be some day husbands and fathers, and I hope that some of them may some time be able to point with pride to a son of equal rank with the one whose father was a member of the Philadelphia police, and who I have no doubt has great pride in his son who is now a member of this House. Mr. Speaker, this is a simple question. However we view the State Constabulary, whether we view them with friendly or unfriendly eyes, certainly from the standpoint of ourselves, from the standpoint of the public, we want to have the best men we can get in that State Constabulary. I have no quarrel with the gentlemen who think that the State Constabulary should not have been established. That is a question of judgment on which fair-minded men will differ. But it was established, Mr. Speaker. I have no quarrel with the gentlemen who think the State Constabulary should now be abolished. That again is a question upon which a difference may exist. But it has not been abolished. When we consider the delicacy of the duties of the State Constabulary in keeping order, in being on duty where there is excitement, where there is danger, when an indiscreet action on their part might lead to bloodshed; when we consider these things, it is of the greatest importance that the men who are charged with that duty should be men of discretion and of good character, should be men of experience, who will not be so likely to do that which is indiscreet, and lead to trouble. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, is it not desirable that we should have men of the best character we can get? Isn't it desirable that they should be kept on the force as long as possible so as to become men of experience who will not act rashly? And, therefore, Mr. Speaker, whether friendly or unfriendly to the Department of the State Constabulary, certainly from the standpoint of policy, isn't it the common sense of the case to believe that as long as we do have them we should have the best class of men we can get and, having gotten them, keep them until they have become men of experience. From everybody's standpoint, isn't it desirable that the recommendations of the department which they say are necessary for them to get the best class of men, to keep them until they have become experienced, isn't it the common sense of the matter that these recommendations should be carried out so that as long as we have the State police we will have in that body men who will perform the duties committed to them in a way most conducive to the general welfare.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether it is not a fact when the State police were organized in 1905 there were some married men taken in and that now the married men cannot join the force, or if he is a member of the force and he gets married that he is made to resign.

Mr. ALTER. Mr. Speaker, I have inquired from the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robinson, who is familiar with these facts that I am not personally familiar with, and he assures me that the contrary is the case, and that is the total of my knowledge upon that particular branch of the subject.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to say that answer does not embody the information which I have gotten, that while married men got on the force in 1905, that now present members of the force marrying are discharged from the force and only single men are recruited.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, now I know that as a matter of fact that one man got married and that they either discharged him or gave him a chance to be discharged. Because a man from Jenkintown told me that he resigned. He told me that he was a married man and he has a wife who was in delicate condition and he was asked to go to some place where he could not go in order to compel him to resign.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I had hoped that I might simply record my vote in opposition to this bill, but we have strayed so far away from the real point at issue that I feel that along with my good friend, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Alter, we should come back to the real question at issue. I desire, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House to have your attention for just about five minutes, and I will try, if you will bear with me, to bring the real question, as it appeals to me, to your attention. According to the act of May 2, 1905, creating the State Constabulary as we commonly call it, we find that Section Five provides as follows:

> "The various members of the Police Force are hereby authorized and empowered to make arrests, without warrant, for all violations of the law which they may witness, and to serve and execute warrants issued by the proper local authorities. They are also authorized and empowered to act as forest, fire, game and fish wardens; and, in general to have the powers and prerogatives conferred by law upon members of the police force of cities of the first class; or upon constables of the Commonwealth; and are intended, as far as possible, to take the place of the police now appointed at the request of the various corporations."

Now, the thing, gentlemen, that I desire to call your attention to is the last clause of the duties prescribed for these able-bodied men; "as far as possible to take the place of the police appointed at the request of the various corporations." It has been stated upon the floor of this House by the sponsor of the bill and by other gentlemen who are deeply interested in its passage that the great trouble with the present system is that the ranks are constantly being robbed by the corporations. Now, gentlemen, I submit to you this question—and first let me preface it with this remark: I have also learned from the advocates of this bill, when the bill was before us some weeks ago, that the ranks are now full, that every position contemplated and created by this act is to-day filled and, further than that, that there are applications galore upon file in that office from which may be drawn the names of men to fill the ranks that will be depleted. At what? At the present rate, sixty dollars per month per man. Now, I submit this as an argument against this bill: If the schooling which these men receive in the State Constabulary places them upon a footing where, as the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Delaware, has to-night stated, they can receive as high as one hundred and fifty dollars a month, it is a good cheap school at the State's expense if it can raise men from sixty dollars a month and qualify them to earn one hundred and fifty dollars in a few months', or even a few years' time; and especially when the State can go to the waiting list and fill these places with other men who meet the requirements as provided in this bill. I think the argument suggested by the gentleman from Delaware as to the depletion of the ranks is rather an argument in favor of the bill to hold it there and let the ranks be depleted month after month and year after year and fill them with men who will be raised to a higher standard and whose earning capacity will be increased.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?
